

NESTOS TAKES UP CUDGEL OF ALL OFFICIALS

Too Much of Disposition to Denounce Politics as Crooked, He Says

SPEAKS TO ROTARIANS

Urges Rotarian Ideals be Translated in the Public Service

St. Paul, Mar. 20.—There has been too much of a disposition to upbraid for politics as something crooked and unworthy," Governor R. A. Nestos of North Dakota declared in speaking to the northwest district Rotary club's convention here this afternoon.

"While it is true that some officials have proven false and unfaithful, yet fortunately this is the exception to the rule," the governor continued. "The great majority of them want to be and are sincere, honest, and dependable servants of the people and need not apologize for being public officials or actively interested in political life."

"It is unfortunate that they have been so prone to accept, in silence or by acquiescence, the gibes at the expense of politicians and officials. Instead of doing this, the official should challenge traducers to proof, and with pride in his position and faith in its wonderful possibilities for service should proclaim the high ideals actuating the official and compel recognition of the essential dignity of a proper public service."

"Men are, as a rule, as honorable, upright, fair and just in the conduct of the public business as the average business or professional man in the conduct of his own business, and we will measureably elevate the standards of public service and will create a more wholesome attitude toward politics and a man's duty in dealing with political problems by forsaking the ridicule and slander of the past, proclaiming the truth of the present, and promoting the ideal of the future."

"The Rotarian should also, as does the business and professional man, ever seek to increase his efficiency, to enlarge the sphere of his service, and to manifest in all of his public business a greater sense of responsibility to the people he is elected to serve. The public official should have his mind to devote the standards in public service to that other men will find it wise, profitable, and conducive to happiness to emulate the example of the man who is conducting the public business in conformity with the spirit and ideals of Rotary."

"A true Rotarian will take unfair and unethical advantage. The public official should also at all times seek to do unto others as he would that others do unto him. The Golden Rule can be applied in public affairs. It is a proper ideal, and I believe that the great Rotary organization can do much to make this principle the ideal of the governing principle in the conduct of all public officials."

The governor declared that "Rotary has functioned with signal success in our business and professional life" and added that "The question now is, can Rotary function similarly and equally well in public affairs, or are the ideals proclaimed by Rotary and its code of ethics inapplicable to the life and labor of our public officials?"

RAIL PLAN OF GROUPING HELD BEST FOR N. D.

(Continued from Page 1)
ernment a score of years ago, Governor R. A. Nestos said here at the hearing before Commissioner Hall of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the consolidation plan.

The governor said that several commercial bodies of North Dakota had found the plan for consolidation of the railroad companies more advantageous to North Dakota than that of the I. C. C. Stating that he did not profess to be well informed on the matters of transportation involved the governor said he spoke on the fundamental questions as affecting North Dakota.

High Rate Cause.
"The recently initiated move of the government looking toward a greater consolidation of railways and railway systems of our country, as distinguished from the sweeping opposition indicated in the case against the Northern Securities merger of a couple of decades ago, has been fostered or compelled by certain facts and conditions now existing and which challenge the thought and invite a serious attempt at an early solution of these problems."

"These conditions are the exceptionally high freight and passenger rates, the shortage and poor condition of cars and other railroad equipment, and the absence of profit which, in many cases, is evidenced by the low price of so many of these railroad securities."

"When the cause for this unfortunate condition is sought, many of the railroad executives place the principal blame upon the continued government interference as they call the acts of government supervision and regulation of freight rates, passenger rates, and car distribution—and complain that the disposition of legislative bodies to constantly place restrictions on railway operations of late years is intensifying the unfortunate conditions and preventing a speedy recovery. It is claimed by them that if there were not so much of government supervision, regulation, and interference, and if, with the business ability and ingenuity of our American railway men, they were permitted to work out these problems in a business-like way, they would be able to improve the service and to reduce the charges. It is also claimed by them that if the railroads were permitted to consolidate or to establish working agreements within certain specified territory, it would make it easier to improve service, reduce rates, and to make a reasonable return on the investment made in these business enterprises."

What Clubs Found.
"In connection with recent hearings on the merger question held in North Dakota, I find that committees of the Commercial clubs of Devils Lake and Minot have gone into this matter with considerable care, and have come to the conclusion that the consolidation proposed by the railway companies is more advantageous to the state of North Dakota than the consolidation proposed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, for the reason that both in the service that can be rendered, in decreased charges for transportation of freight and passengers and in the greater aid that may be given to the development of the Northwest, the railroads will be in a better position to serve the people of the state, if weaker roads are not loaded on to the shoulders of either of the larger railway systems now serving our state."

"It is apparent that if the plea for less regulation and fewer restrictions on the railroad business is to be successful, and a freer play given to the business acumen and ability of the executives of these roads to work out these problems, that the public welfare then demands that competition, along broad lines, must be preserved; not the petty competition which defeats efficiency, but the broader competition which tends to promote justice, while, at the same time, it encourages efficiency possible. If, on the other hand, extensive consolidation and working agreements should be permitted or encouraged, the public welfare demands that there should also go with such consolidation and permission to establish working agreements, an effective government supervision, regulation, and control to the end that the public may be assured of adequate and efficient service together with more reasonable rates on freight and passenger traffic."

Must Be Supervised.
"What the public is interested in is a form of management so supervised, regulated, and controlled that the best possible service, at the lowest possible cost, can be given to the public, and at the same time to give those who have invested their earnings in the railroad business a reasonable and fair return on such investment. If adequate and effective government supervision, regulation, and control can be established and maintained, I believe that much good may be done by a greater consolidation among the railroad lines and railway systems, but that if there is to be less of supervision, regulation and control of the service and charges of these railroads, then action must be taken to preserve a broad competition among the various railroad lines serving the same territory; and that, under these circumstances, the future welfare of our state demands, it seems to me, that no two of the three great railway systems having the largest mileage in our state should be permitted to become members of the same consolidated group."

work when I was there in 1909. I was on the Shaw farm at St. Marks, Leon county, 23 miles from Tallahassee. If you care to reply I can tell you more about these cruelties. If you wish a sworn affidavit I will gladly do so.

Legion Urges Donations
The Legion post of the American Legion, No. 98, at a recent meeting passed a resolution urging the post membership to support State's Attorney Grimson and other authorities interested in the Tabert case investigations and urged the membership to donate liberally to the cause.

DAKOTA MEN TO PRESS TABERT CASE IN SOUTH

(Continued from Page 1)

work when I was there in 1909. I was on the Shaw farm at St. Marks, Leon county, 23 miles from Tallahassee. If you care to reply I can tell you more about these cruelties. If you wish a sworn affidavit I will gladly do so.

Legion Urges Donations
The Legion post of the American Legion, No. 98, at a recent meeting passed a resolution urging the post membership to support State's Attorney Grimson and other authorities interested in the Tabert case investigations and urged the membership to donate liberally to the cause.

NOTICE
The Knights of Pythias will have their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. Hall.

BARGAINS FOR MEN
R. C. Rosen's Bankrupt stock of Men's and Boys' clothing, shoes, etc., now on sale.

RUHR OFFICIALS OFF TO JAIL

Thurgemaster Haverstein (left) and Shaeffer are shown here being led off prison by French soldiers after their sentence by a French courtmartial in Essen. Haverstein was sentenced to three years and Shaeffer to two years in prison and a fine of 5,000,000 marks.

MAY ROBSON DELIGHTS AUDIENCE AT AUDITORIUM IN NEW COMEDY

Ever delightful May Robson returned to Bismarck last night in a play extraordinary only in that it perfectly fitted the character for whom it was built, and permitted Mrs. Robson to entertain an audience with two hours and a half of fun, and an occasional heart-throb, and a tense moment here and there. She also had able support in "Mother's Millions," the play in which she is engaged on her western tour. And in which she created a far sized audience at the Auditorium last night.

Miss Robson appeared as a sort of reincarnated Betty Green, reputed fabulously wealthy, remarkably keen and extremely penurious, buying a strong sentiment in a heavy sense of parental responsibility. She was introduced in a Jersey city flat, plainly furnished in spite of her millions, a returned son who had been sent away because he broadcast his wild oats too freely, a pretty daughter kept away from the pleasures of the bright lights and making a feeble effort to brighten the dingy surroundings, and a maid who

MANDAN NEWS

After a fist fight in which John F. Crosby, farmer of St. Anthony district, knocked out John F. Haider, former living south of town, in a dispute over farm affairs, the latter is alleged to have assaulted Crosby with a knife with intent to kill.

When arraigned in justice court yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill Haider pleaded not guilty and was released upon $2,000 bond until a hearing at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, March 23.

John Crosby, sustained five months and stabs about the face and neck. Crosby came to the Haider farm and a dispute over farming affairs and property occurred which wound up in a fist fight, according to a story told to State Attorney L. J. Connelly by Mr. Crosby. After a battle which lasted for several minutes Crosby got the better of his assailant and downed him.

Haider is said to have yelled that he had "had enough" and Crosby released him and started to walk away when Haider, however, jerked out a pocket knife and is alleged to have assaulted Crosby from behind. It is said that none of the wounds sustained by Crosby prove fatal.

Twenty-two of the 25 members of the Mandan Rotary club left last night by the special car to attend the ninth district Rotary conference which is held there today and tomorrow.

According to word received from the Redpath Vactor Chautauqua system at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the program plans for the summer are practically complete and the management promises us the finest program that has ever been sent over our circuit.

Miss Cecile Porter, deputy county judge, who took an inmate to the state home at Graton the middle of the week returned Sunday. Miss Porter spent a day in Grand Forks with her brother who is a student at the university and also stopped in Fargo for the Mandan-Fargo basketball game. Miss Ruth Arthur of Mandan also attended the tournament.

Mrs. J. A. Harding and little son, Jackie, who Mr. and Mrs. Harding recently adopted, left Sunday evening for Brainerd, Minn., for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. G. A. Renden left Sunday for Minneapolis, where she will meet her daughter, Miss Ruth, student at St.

Sloan's
Sloan's breaks up the inflamed congested condition.
Sloan's Liniment—kills pain!
For rheumatism, bruises, strains, chest colds.

MURPHY
"The Man Who Knows Insurance."
Bismarck N. D.

MEET MISTER OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity is willing to meet you half-way. When you attend Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D., opportunity comes there to meet you. That's where Rose Sorenson recently obtained her position with Bingenheimer Merc. Co. at $109 a month, and Lorna Dunning got a fine place with Westergaard-Blair Co. The best firms employ Dakota Business College graduates.

A desk is waiting for YOU. A good position is waiting at the end of your course. "Follow the Successful" Begin any Monday. Write F. I. Watkins, Pres., 806 Front St., Fargo, N. D.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN SHIP

New Orleans, Mar. 20.—Fire broke out in the hold of the steamer Ophis early today as she was preparing to go into dry dock at Algiers, La., just across the Mississippi river from here. The flames were extinguished with small loss, it is reported. The Ophis is listed as a freight vessel of 1,573 tons, fitted for fuel oil, owned by the Shipping Port with Tacoma, Wash., her port of registry.

WEATHER REPORT

|                       |     |
|-----------------------|-----|
| Temperature at 7 a.m. | 37  |
| Temperature yesterday | 46  |
| Highest yesterday     | 49  |
| Lowest yesterday      | 34  |
| Lowest last night     | 17  |
| Precipitation         | .03 |
| Highest wind velocity | 18  |

Weather Forecast
For Bismarck and Vicinity: Snow and colder tonight with cold wave. Wednesday partly cloudy, continued cold. Strong northwest winds.
For North Dakota: Snow and colder tonight with cold wave. Wednesday partly cloudy, continued cold. Strong northwest winds.

Weather Conditions
The low pressure area is centered over the Hudson and Chesapeake this morning and temperatures have risen considerably in the Mississippi valley and plains states. Temperatures are also high over the southwest but slightly colder weather prevails from the northern Rocky Mountain region to the north Pacific coast, due to high pressure off the Oregon coast. Fair weather prevails in the south and light precipitation has been general throughout the northern states.

Orin W. Roberts, Meteorologist.

REPRESENTATIVE FROM ILL.
Oshabronk, N. D., March 20.—Since his return from Bismarck, Representative A. N. Flinn has been seriously ill with influenza and inflammatory rheumatism. According to latest reports of his attending physician, he was improving.

ADAM AND EVE ON LISLE
London, March 20.—There's one place in the world where the eternal triangle is impossible—the island of Lisle in the Orkney group. Its only inhabitants are a man and his wife, latest census reveals.

Ticket Sale on for "One Girl in a Million" at Harris & Woodmansee. Auditorium, tomorrow night.

WANTED: Girl for general house work, 1001 5th St. Phone 639.
Mrs. S. D. Dietz, 12-20-1923.
FOR RENT: Furnished rooms in modern home, 1016 Broadway. Phone 99W. 3-20-31.
FOR SALE: 1 bed complete, 1 dresser, small table, 1 sanitary couch, child's high chair, bassinet, 1 golf bag and stick, ice cream freezer. Call mornings. Phone 335, 822-5th St. 3-20-31.

BEULAH COAL now $4.75 per ton delivered. The Watcher Transfer Co. Phone 62.

Dry Cleaning, Pressing, Dyeing, Repairing. Call 58c Eagle Tailoring.

The woman who scorned and saved him

Why should the sinister Antoinette de Maubau, who at first scorned Rudolf Rassendyll, later risk her happiness to save him?

It is part of the enthralling story of

The Rex Ingram Production of The Prisoner of Zenda
by Anthony Hope

Adults 35c. Children 20c.

The Hartford Fire Insurance Company.
Call on this agency.

Webb Brothers

"Merchandise of Merit Only"

New Gloves

New Blouses

New Hats

New Hosiery

New Vests

New Sweaters

For EASIER

10 Shopping Days--Then Easter

Easter is fashion's own day, the occasion on which you, like all other women, will eagerly pay homage to style by smartly decking yourself in her most distinctive creations and joining the Easter parade.

FROCKS
Make a smart bid for the privilege of costuming you on Easter. Indeed after seeing these, one wonders if you could make a wiser choice.
The Prices Range from $15.00.

COATS
Because they are so good looking this spring, will be the Easter choice of many fashionable women. We believe that never have we shown such an attractive group.
The Prices Range from $13.50 up.

SUITS
The Easter costume par excellence live up to the finest traditions of unique styling, attractive fabrics and clever details.
The Prices Range from $27.50 up.

We especially invite you to view this season's Easter display because of its unusual attractiveness. In the foremost fashion centers our buyers collected the distinctive costumes which compose these complete assortments and we feel justly proud of them.

Eltinge

TONIGHT
TUESDAY
WEDNESDAY
THURSDAY

A Woman Who Gave Love or a Woman Who Betrayed Love?

"SKIN DEEP"

with Milton Sills, Florence Victor, Marcia Mann

A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION

A DRAMA OF DUAL PERSONALITIES, CHANGING FACES, CHANGE LOVES THAT NEVER

SPECIAL ATTRACTION
MINERVINI
ARTISTIC ACCORDIAN ENTERTAINER

MATINEE AND EVENING

STOP COUGHS COLDS

with

A Reliable and Pleasant Remedy for Throat Affections, Bronchial Asthma, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Hay Fever.

Catarrh, Coughs, Colds

VAPOR-O
AT YOUR DRUGGISTS
MADE BY
McCABE DRUG CO. BISMARCK, N. D.

Sloan's
Sloan's breaks up the inflamed congested condition.
Sloan's Liniment—kills pain!
For rheumatism, bruises, strains, chest colds.

ESTABLISHED 1873

BISMARCK, NORTH DAKOTA, TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 1923

PRICE FIVE CENTS

DAKOTA MEN TO PRESS TABERT CASE IN SOUTH

Judge Kneeshaw Volunteers to Accompany Grimson to Southern State

FUND BEING RAISED

Several Hundred Dollars Subscribed to Pay Expenses of Men on Trip

Langdon, N. D., Mar. 20.—Judge W. J. Kneeshaw and State's Attorney G. Grimson of Cavalier county expect to leave for Perry, Florida this week to be present at the grand jury hearing scheduled to begin at that place March 26 to investigate the circumstances of the death of Martin Tabert, Munich, la. who it is charged came to his death in a lumber camp in Dixie county, Florida through mistreatment when leased out as a county prisoner to the Putnam Lumber company. At least ten witnesses who are residents of Florida and four from outside the state will give testimony at the grand jury hearing, according to State's Attorney Grimson.

Only a possible delay in completing the details of securing a change of venue from Dixie county to Taylor county can delay the opening of the hearing, Mr. Grimson says. It is believed that Martin Tabert died in Dixie county, and in response to a wire from Mr. Grimson, State's Attorney John B. Kelly of the Florida district has replied that he is taking steps to secure such change of venue. Under the Florida system the state is divided into districts for court purposes and one state's attorney and one judge serve the entire district consisting of several counties. A change of venue will therefore not take the hearing from the district nor will it take it to a different jurisdiction. Judge W. F. Horne is the presiding judge in the Florida district where the hearing will take place.

Fund Being Raised
Judge Kneeshaw goes to Florida merely as a volunteer to see that justice in procedure is secured. He has made an offer to pay his own expenses, if necessary, but has not thought however, that this will be necessary, as an effort is being made to secure $1,000 in Cavalier county before Tuesday to pay the expenses of Mr. Grimson and Judge Kneeshaw and those incurred in transporting witnesses. Over $700 has been subscribed to the "Tabert fund" Saturday. Otto Tabert, brother of Martin Tabert, may accompany Mr. Grimson and Judge Kneeshaw but this is not certain.

Florida Sentiment Aroused
That sentiment against the convict leasing system practiced by Florida counties is growing rapidly since Mr. Grimson began his investigations of the Tabert case is evident from the numerous letters that he receives daily and the tons of editorial comment in Florida newspapers, both dailies and weeklies. Mr. Grimson is also in receipt today of communications from four members of the Florida house of representatives deploring the practice of leasing county prisoners.

According to Associated Press dispatches of the day, expected in Florida newspapers, Representative J. Ed. Stokes of Bay county, Florida, will introduce a measure in the coming session of the Florida legislature to abolish the county-convict leasing system. Mr. Stokes, who is a candidate for speaker of the house, makes the statement that he introduced a similar measure in the session of 1921 but that it was lost. He then put through a local bill abolishing the system in his own county, he declares.

Judges Oppose System
The fact that the judges of Florida are opposed to the practice of convict leasing by the counties is indicated by resolutions passed at the recent convention of county judges of Florida.

By unanimous vote at the opening session of the convention, the judges pledged their support to a movement inaugurated by Commissioner of Agriculture McRae to bring about the speedy abolition of the convict leasing system.

Is Common in State
That mistreatment of prisoners under the convict-lease system is common in Florida is the claim made in numerous letters in the hands of Mr. Grimson. Perhaps the most pathetic letter received recently is one addressed to Governor R. A. Nestos by H. C. Cruise, 287 North Bellevue avenue, Memphis, Tenn. The writer of the letter alleges that on January 5, 1909, when he was 17 years old, he was sentenced to a term of 10 years in the state penitentiary at Tallahassee, Fla., and fled from all his money. The next day, he asserts, he was arrested and taken before a justice where he was sentenced to 90 days at hard labor while the two men who had won his money from him were released.

Cruise, according to his story, was sent to a turpentine farm where he worked under the worst possible conditions, often times in a foot or more of water and in a steady rain for hours. He says that he was stripped of his clothing and whipped with a five pound leather strap while bent over a log with a large negro holding his head. "I am in poor health to this day," declares Mr. Cruise, "from the effects of a blow from that five pound strap across the kidneys. Governor Hardee says that the state of Florida must not be judged by a single instance of mistreatment to a prisoner, but I want to say that if a man happens to fall a victim to one of those lumber camps or turpentine farms and is not a good strong man he will never get over it. They made 15 year old boys do men's

MOVIE GIRL'S DEATH IS PROBED

Upon testimony of Betty Miller (above) police ordered Ben Bojarquez (below) held pending investigation of the death of his sweet heart, Eileen Zimmerman, movie bathing girl and artist's model. Bojarquez says Miss Zimmerman committed suicide. Miss Miller, co-um of the deal girl, claims Bojarquez and Miss Zimmerman quarreled the day before the latter was found dead.

FUTURE USES OF HOSPITALS IS PROBLEM

Federal Board Urges Study of Problem to Protect U. S. Interests

Washington, Mar. 20.—Immediate inauguration of a continuing study to determine future economic uses for the Federal Government's vast hospital facilities, urged by the Board of Consultants on hospitalization in a report today to Secretary Mellon.

The work of mapping out further possible uses for the great hospital plants, the board suggests, should be centralized in some federal government office and the problems made subject to close scrutiny in order that the war and post-war expenditures may not be wasted.

Recommendation also is made by the board that some plan of cooperation between the federal government and the states be evolved to ultimately make hospital practices uniform throughout the country.

WILL LEASE LANDS SOON

Cultivated Lands to be Included This Year

School land leasings this year will include cultivated lands which reverted to the state through surrender or cancellation of land contracts, it was said today by Carl R. Kositzky, land commissioner. Rentals for school lands will range from a minimum of 50 cents an acre to a maximum of 75 cents an acre.

The annual leasing of school lands will be conducted by Frank Kiebert and John Snyder. The first leasing will be in Emmets county on March 23 and the last in Sioux county on May 9. All lands will be rented to the best bidder. The minimum fee for grazing and pasture lands will be the same as last year, $15 for a quarter of a section, with a $3 leasing fee charged to cover expenses of the leasing. The auctions will be held in the county seats of the state.

KLAN KLEAGLE ESCAPES TRAIL

Springfield, O., Mar. 20.—Motions made by the defense to dismiss the defendant, return of property seized and to throw out all evidence and testimony offered by the state were sustained by Judge Golden, in police court this morning in the case of M. W. Corder, Ku Klux Klan Kleagle and organizer, charged with riotous conspiracy.

EXPECT LAWS SOON.
Copies of the popular edition of the session laws of 1923 are expected to be available within a week or two, it was stated at the office of the secretary of state.

STATE BOARD ASKS HALT ON STUDY COURSES

Board of Administration Resolution Against Expansion in Institutions

ECONOMY NECESSARY

Would Review Any Projected Changes in Curriculums in Institutions

Heads of educational institutions in the state under control of the state board of administration will be notified of a resolution adopted by the board urging that no new courses of study be adopted for the institutions for the next school year. The action of the board was taken, it was stated, because of curtailed appropriations, and also as a part of the general economy movement in the state in avoiding expansion of activities as much as possible.

The resolution adopted by the board follows: "Resolved, that the secretary be instructed to notify the heads of all the State Educational Institutions advising them that it is the sense of this board, in view of the curtailed budgets, that no additional new courses of study be added to the curriculum of any institution until the same has first been approved by the Board of Administration."

Departmental heads and heads of the various educational institutions are now considering and planning the courses of study to be added to the curriculum of the institutions. The resolution, it was stated, does not prevent readjustment of any courses for the purpose of strengthening the institutions. Members of the board of administration probably will visit most of the state institutions within the next two or three weeks to go over the budgets for the year beginning July 1.

1,000 SAID HOMELESS IN STORM AREA

Must be Provided With Food and Clothing, Say Red Cross Workers

Memphis, Tenn., Mar. 20.—Approximately 1,000 persons are homeless in the tornado-swept area of North-western Mississippi and must be provided food and clothing to aid them in rehabilitating themselves, according to an estimate made by C. J. Crane and C. E. Lovett, representatives of the American Red Cross, in charge of relief measures.

The estimate was made today after the survey of the situation at Savage and other points in the area devastated by the storm which swept Thursday and took a toll of 28 lives. Such a merger would be the entire state of North Dakota, Fred P. Mann, Devils Lake merchant and director of the National Chamber of Commerce declared. A combination would improve service and would not eliminate competition because of the existence of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and S. S. Marie and Chicago and Milwaukee roads. Similar opinions were expressed by Stanley C. Colburn, representing the Minot commercial club, James Kennedy, Fargo, contractor, and R. E. Barron, Minot banker.

COLD WAVE DUE TONIGHT

Balmy Breezes of Spring to be Short-Lived Here

A spread of 65 degrees in temperature, from the lowest point in Bismarck Sunday to the highest Monday, marked one of the most unusual 24 hours of weather in Bismarck in many moons. From 16 below early Sunday morning, the thermometer rose to 49 above zero yesterday, the highest point. The lowest temperature last night was 37 degrees above.

STORAGE GRAIN IS PROTECTED

Over Million Dollars of Bonds Are Given

"Most of the storage tickets are pretty well protected by bonds," John N. Hagan, state supervisor of grains and grain grading, said today, announcing also that since December 25 approximately $1,000,000 in additional bonds had been required from grain elevators to protect grain held in storage. Within a week this amount of bonds will be raised to $1,500,000, he added.

Mr. Hagan has been functioning under a modified federal court order designed to permit him to supervise bonding of elevators pending final decision on the constitutionality of the state grain grading inflated law. "We have had hardly any opposition in our bonding work, either from line elevators or farmers' elevators," Mr. Hagan said.

The initiated grain grading law will soon go to the United States supreme court, he said, and Seth Richardson, engaged as special counsel by Attorney General Shafer, will ask advancement on the calendar, with the hope of getting a decision before the summer adjournment of the court.

$475 VERDICT IS GIVEN HERE

A jury in district court gave judgment to J. C. Olson, plaintiff in a case involving several head of cattle, against Cliff Thompson for $475.00. Both are farmers living between McKenzie and Moffit. Trial of a case set for today in the court was delayed because the prosecuting witness, from Hazen, was unable to get across the river from Mandan.

RAIL PLAN OF GROUPING HELD BEST FOR N. D.

Governor Nestos Makes Statement at Commission Hearing in St. Paul

MARKED CHANGE SHOWN

Plea for Consolidation Born in Demand for Lowest Freight Rates, Claim

Dakotas for Hill Plan
St. Paul, Mar. 20.—Opposition to any consolidation but an endorsement of a merger of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Chicago and Burlington and Quincy lines if there is some merger, was scheduled to be voiced by St. Paul interests before representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the proposed railway consolidation plan today.

North Dakota interests appearing before Commissioner Campbell yesterday went on record as favoring an acceptance of a merger of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Burlington if the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie line agreed to make connections which would provide an entrance into Fargo and Grand Forks on the Soo Line.

Witnesses from North Dakota, Iowa, and Minnesota gave emphatic endorsement to the proposed merger of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railways as a productive of greatly increased service to the public at today's hearing before representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The merger of the three roads would be a long step toward relief of car shortage during the peak of the grain movement as the Burlington peak comes later than that of the Northern, and car supplies would be alternately augmented, the North Dakota and Iowa witnesses said.

Such a merger would be the entire state of North Dakota, Fred P. Mann, Devils Lake merchant and director of the National Chamber of Commerce declared. A combination would improve service and would not eliminate competition because of the existence of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and S. S. Marie and Chicago and Milwaukee roads. Similar opinions were expressed by Stanley C. Colburn, representing the Minot commercial club, James Kennedy, Fargo, contractor, and R. E. Barron, Minot banker.

Governor R. A. Nestos of North Dakota who was the first witness called at the opening session yesterday told the committee that the transportation problem must be solved in the interest of the public and railroad workers. What the railroad wants is the best service at lowest cost which will permit a reasonable return to the carrier.

Governor Nestos made no mention of the Hill merger as opposed to the Ripley plan of consolidation. The Hill plan would merge the three railroads while the Ripley plan would place the Northern Pacific and Great Northern in a separate grouping.

St. Paul, Mar. 20.—The Ripley plan of the Interstate Commerce Commission for consolidation of railroads into a few big systems is a marked change from the attitude of the government.

TO BUILD FOR EXPRESS CO.

Northern Pacific to Put New Building West of Depot

A new building to house the American Railways Express company office, now located on Broadway, will be built adjoining the depot by the Northern Pacific Railway company, according to information here.

The building is necessitated by lack of express room in the depot and insufficiency of other quarters of the company, it is understood. Work on the building probably will begin about May 1. It is understood it will be built on the lawn west of the depot, in line with Webb Brothers building. The new building will not be an expensive structure.

POSTMAN 30 YEARS
Grand Forks, N. D., March 19.—Frank Giffy of Grand Forks on Sunday rounded out 30 years in the service of the United States postal department. During that period it is estimated that he has walked 148,000 miles to deliver 9,000,000 letters to the residents of Grand Forks in addition to newspapers and other second class mail.

He has refused to accept the pension to which he is entitled and will continue in the service.

RUHR WORKERS URGE EFFORTS TO END FIGHT

Ask Government to Take all Possible Means to Settle Ruhr Crisis

AGAINST LONG FIGHT

Reported French Forbid Activity by Relief Societies in Ruhr

Hamm, Germany, Mar. 20.—In a resolution adopted by the leaders of the mine workers' association of Germany the government is called upon "to leave no possibility exhausted to end the Ruhr battle and settle the reparations crisis through negotiations."

The resolution opposed any attempt to cripple the peaceful resistance campaign or on the other hand to prolong the struggle unduly and it demands the suppression of every movement which is aimed at producing armed opposition either from inside the Ruhr or outside of it.

FORBID RELIEF WORK.
Berlin, Mar. 20.—An Essen dispatch to Vorwaerts reports that the Rhineland Commission has issued a new order forbidding activities in the occupied area by any such organization as the Ruhr Relief Society. The collection of funds, sale of stamps or payment in connection with relief work are also said to have been forbidden.

The newspaper says under the authority of this order numerous seizures have been made. Three cities are specifically cited in which a total of 285,000 marks are said to have been taken. These places include Rheyde, where the Belgians appropriated money belonging to the city, five million of which was intended for the unemployment and six million held by the Reichsbank for distribution to railroad men and Muenchen-Gladbach, where 10,000, 00 marks in funds for the unemployed were seized and Hagen, where the seizure involved 102,000, 000 marks.

W. D. DOPKING, FORMER STATE OFFICER, DIES

Found Dead in Bed in His Home in Mandan Early Today by Son

Wm. D. Dopking, 58, state parole officer from 1914 to 1918 and assistant deputy warden of the state penitentiary under Charles McDonald, was found dead in bed this morning by his son, William Jr., 17, with whom he slept.

He had complained of pains about his heart last night, but apparently had recovered and talked with his son for sometime at 11:30 o'clock before he slept.

Mr. Dopking, a native of Caro, Michigan, came to North Dakota in 1902 and homesteaded. A part of the townsite of Flasher is a part of his original homestead. He conducted a grocery store there for some years until he was appointed to the state police. Since 1920 he had been making his home in Mandan.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of American Yeomanry of Bismarck and Mandan Elks lodge. Funeral arrangements were not made, pending return of Mrs. Dopking, who has been employed at Jamestown for the last four months. Two children survive.

COUPLE WEDDED 50 YEARS

Endrelin, N. D., March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Nord celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a family reunion, all their children being present. After remarks by Rev. Gustaf and Runvold, the couple were presented with a shower of gold coins. A gold ring was presented to Mrs. Nord, and a gold head-cane to Mr. Nord.

DES LACS VOTERS, GOING TO POLLS TODAY, EXPECTED TO RETURN WOMEN

Des Lacs, N. D., March 20.—The village of Des Lacs, which a year ago stepped into a unique place in the county, by electing a complete set of feminine city officials, is pretty well satisfied with the first year's administration of "petticoat" government, and according to present indications will return practically the entire assembly to office for another year. The village election is being held today.

Daniel Olson, husky section foreman, who was appointed to the office of village marshal, after things got "too tough" for Mrs. F. H. Ward, who resigned, will not be a candidate for re-election. He has given no reason for not running for the office again.

Two women did battle at the polls for the honor to bear the village marshal's star. They are Mrs. Seth Lund and Mrs. John Holy. Each is confident that she can handle any situation which arises, they announce, and if elected will wield the billy club in a manner that insures an intention to enforce the law. Mrs.

IN CLARKE CASE

Laura Martin, Houston (Tex.) girl shown above, declares she is the girl Edward Young Clarke, Atlanta, Ga., is accused of having transported to New Orleans for immoral purposes. She will testify at the trial in Houston of Clarke who is charged with violating the Mann act.

ADOPT CREAM GRADING PLAN FOR NO. DAKOTA

Probably Will be Put in Effect on May 1, Dairy Commissioner Announces

SUPERVISION PLANNED
System will Reward Producers of Quality Cream, View of Mr. Reynolds

Purchase and sale of cream by grades will become effective in North Dakota probably on May 1, W. F. Reynolds, state dairy commissioner, said today following his return from a meeting with members of the Dairy Products Association of the Northwest in St. Paul. The system, Mr. Reynolds said, will provide reward for producers who bring up the quality of the cream they sell.

At the St. Paul meeting Mr. Reynolds secured assent of cream buyers in outside states, who do not have regular stations in North Dakota, to the plan, so that a uniform grading system will obtain on all cream produced in the state, he said. There is no cream grading in North Dakota at this time, but several states have found it a success, Mr. Reynolds said.

There will be two grades of cream, No. 1 and No. 2. It is estimated that 70 per cent of all cream now being produced in North Dakota grades No. 1, he said. The objection to the present method, where a flat price of pound is paid regardless of the quality, is that it brings down the price of cream which the producer has sought to bring to a high quality level, and raises the price of poor cream. It is not a difficult matter to bring all cream to grade No. 1, he said, lower grade being marketed generally where cows have been fed on wild onions or strong-flavored food.

Drafting of rules and regulations for the cream grading system were under way today by Mr. Reynolds and assistants. All grading will be done by official graders, under the supervision of the dairy commissioner. In addition there will be field men under his direction to check up all grading stations, so that the basic-check will be maintained and all cream stations will grade on the same basis, he said. Both out-of-state buyers and those within the state will be on the same basis, he added.

Mr. Reynolds has figured that, on the basis of present prices, a gain of $920,000 would have been recorded by producers if all cream sold in the last year could have been graded No. 1 at the buying stations.

FOSTER NAMED SELF AS FOR "REVOLUTION"

Said in Questionnaire, State Charges, He Had Been Active 21 Years

AGENT TAKES STAND

Department of Justice Sleuth Who Attended Meeting Tells Communist Secrets

St. Joseph, Mar. 20.—The questionaire which William Z. Foster is charged with filling out when he arrived at the Communist National Convention held in the sand dunes near here last August was introduced in evidence today by the state in Foster's trial for syndicalism. The questionnaire read to the jury says that "Borden," the name Foster is declared to have used at the convention, had been "active in the revolutionary movement for 21 years."

"Borden" also wrote in answer to questions on the sheet that he was an employee of the Communist party with the title of industrial organizer, that he had been a member of the I.W.O. of the Socialist party and of several labor unions and had participated frequently and had participated in scores of strikes.

Francis Morrow, a department of justice agent, who attended the convention as a delegate from the Philadelphia and Camden districts, was on the stand today to identify more of the papers federal agents seized in a raid on the meeting.

The morning session was marked by frequent clashes and the exchange of personalities between Frank J. and Oliver L. Smith, assistant attorney general of Michigan.

DENY STATE'S AID TO GUARD IN WISCONSIN

Legislature Votes to Terminate Support for Guard Armories

Madison, Wis., Mar. 20.—The Wisconsin National Guard received a second blow from the legislature today when the assembly voted 44 to 21 to terminate state aid for maintenance of armories and to turn over the eight state-owned armories to the cities in which they are located for school and other purposes. This stand was taken by engrossment of a bill introduced by Assemblyman John Polakowski, Milwaukee socialist, author of the proposal to abolish the National Guard, which passed the assembly.

ROTARY MEET IS UNDER WAY

Mayor of St. Paul Welcomes Delegates at Session

St. Paul, Mar. 20.—With approximately 500 delegates present from 32 clubs in Minnesota and North Dakota, the largest ninth district Rotary clubs conference got under way today and will continue until late Wednesday. A session of the conference was held at the Hotel St. Paul, where Mayor Arthur F. Nelson of St. Paul, and marked the morning session of the congress which disposal of preliminary business and appointed committees.

Mr. Black made a report of his activities as district governor during the past year, showing what progress had been made by the club in the ninth district and praising the spirit displayed by Minnesota and North Dakota representatives. He encouraged the increased activities of women in Rotary activities.

ALIENATION CASE APPEALED

Emmons County Case Comes to the Supreme Court

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Oster of Emmons county have appealed to the supreme court from a verdict of $2,000 granted by a jury to Karoline Oster, their daughter-in-law, in a $25,000 suit for alienation of affections of her husband. The verdict was granted in December, 1922.

Many specifications of error are assigned in the appeal. The plaintiff alleged in her original complaint that after she and her husband, Jacob Oster, who were married in South Dakota, had moved to North Dakota, the parents-in-law began a systematic effort to break up their marital union. By threatening Jacob Oster with disinheritance and other means they forced him to send her from home, she alleged. The couple have one child.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Ole Tatley, Who Went To Klondyke in Gold Rush, Dies Away

When he was received in the city of the death of Ole Tatley at Monterey, Calif. The deceased was brother of Henry Tatley of the Grand Pacific hotel, who now lives in Hollywood, Calif. Ole Tatley was formerly a resident of Bismarck, leaving during the gold rush for the Klondyke about twenty-five years ago. He leaves many friends among the old timers here who will regret to learn of his death. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tatley, at Hollywood, and the remains laid to rest in the Hollywood cemetery, March 12. The pallbearers were Ed Hughes and S. W. Herrick, of Bismarck, A. W. Marcel, S. M. Pye, and Wm. Pye, former of Bismarck and Chas. Rathman, formerly of Jamestown. Among others who attended the funeral were Ed C. B. Little, of Bismarck, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patterson, Dr. Kendrick and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, formerly of Bismarck, Gus Herd, formerly of Linton, and Judge Biglow, formerly of Jamestown.

ST. PAUL MAY BURN LIGNITE

St. Paul, March 20.—An investigation to ascertain the feasibility of burning lignite coal will be conducted by a committee appointed by the industrial promotion subdivision of the St. Paul association. It was announced today. The committee will seek to learn if lignite is suitable for fuel for St. Paul consumers and in the investigation will cooperate with North Dakota coal operators.

Receiver Named For Bowbells Bank

Minot, March 20.—Judge John C. Lowe in district court here today named A. A. Swanson at present receiver of the bank at Lone Tree and Kenmare to fill the same position in the closed First State Bank of Bowbells.

The First State bank at that place has been closed since last fall but previous to this time no receiver was in charge.

TUNE UP THE KIDNEYS

"Symptoms of kidney trouble are all gone. Water is clear and does not burn. Foley Kidney Pills certainly do the work," writes W. I. Grady, New Orleans, Louisiana. Backache, rheumatic pains, tired feeling, are symptoms of distressed kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills tone up the kidneys and quickly relieve kidney and bladder trouble. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's.

Ticket Sale on for "One Girl in a Million" at Harris & Woodmansee. Auditorium, tomorrow night.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Bismarck evidence doubly proven.

Mrs. N. F. Reynolds, 417 Madison Ave., Bismarck, says: "I suffered from pains through my back and kidneys, and other symptoms of kidney trouble. My ankles swelled and I found it difficult to get my shoes on at times. After trying several different kidney remedies without getting the least help, finally got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Lehart Drug Co., and a few convinced me that they were a good remedy. I continued using Doan's until all trace of the trouble had entirely disappeared."

OVER TWELVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Reynolds said: "I think as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I recommended them before. I have used them on several occasions since when I have taken cold and noticed a slight return of my former trouble and have always obtained prompt relief."

60c. at all dealers. Foster-McBurn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. ad

NOTICE

The Board of Trustees of the First Presbyterian church has determined to sell the building known as the Old Presbyterian Manse, situated immediately east of the First Presbyterian church, in the city of Bismarck.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned will receive bids for such building, including the plumbing and furnace therein, at the office of S. E. Bergeson & Son, until five o'clock P. M., on the 21st day of March, 1923. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for ten per cent of the amount of the bid, and the successful bidder shall be required to enter into an agreement to remove such building from said property on or prior to the 1st day of April, 1923. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Dated this 9th day of March, 1923.
R. M. BERGESON,
Secretary Board of Trustees,
First Presbyterian Church.

PHILADELPHIA SLAYER PREPARED VAULT FOR VICTIMS

MRS. MARY RAMES.

EMMA SILVA.

Investigation of the slaying of Mrs. Wilhelmina Silva and Mrs. Mary Rames disclosed that Emanuel Silva had prepared a concrete death vault with racks for the bodies in the cellar of his Philadelphia home. According to the police, Silva killed his wife and mother-in-law and then attempted suicide. His daughter, Emma Silva, escaped by leaping through a window.

Sam Brown Belts For Letter Carriers

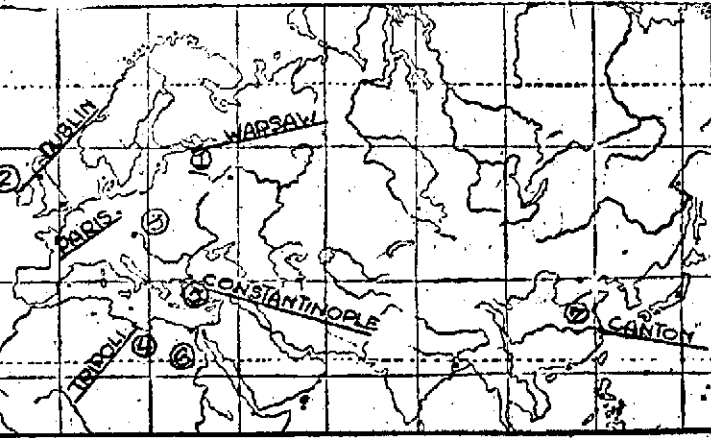

Very soon you may notice that your letter carrier bears a resemblance to an aviator officer. Here is First Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett inspecting the new Sam Brown belt for letter carriers which has been designed to cause equal distribution of weight.

"AND NO CRAP SHOOTING"

French officers are on good terms with the black pollies in the mixed regiments now holding the Ruhr. Here is a French captain jesting with a couple of black privates. It is the presence of these colored soldiers that has intensified the resentment of the white native population.

SEVEN WARS WORRY WORLD

Fighting is raging at seven points in Europe and Asia. Lithuanians and Poles are engaged in a border dispute (1); in Ireland (2) the Free State continues its fight on insurgents; French invasion of the Ruhr (3) is characterized by increased violence; Arabs have risen against their Italian rulers in Tripoli (4); Turkey (5) has rejected the Lausanne treaty and is ready to fight; Nationalist riots have broken out in many parts of Egypt (6) and China (7) still is rent by internal dissensions and the plundering of bandit war lords.

CITY NEWS

Publishes a Song.
H. C. Howard, real estate dealer of Chicago, who has extensive holdings in the southwest part of the state and is well known here, has turned song-writer as a side-line. His composition, "Every Day," is reported to have a wide sale.

Freezes Face
W. J. O'Leary, state transportation officer, hiked five miles to Russo through a storm to get food for passengers on the snowbound Soo train Saturday night, and froze his face during the hike, according to Minot dispatches.

Bismarck Hospital.
Nick Thuhenko of Max, Everett Peterson of Pettibone, Mrs. Stephen Heinle of Lehr, Mrs. Henry Humann of Hazelton, W. Lehigh of New Salem, and Mrs. C. F. Wehmeier of Hobron, have entered the Bismarck hospital for treatment. Mrs. M. C. Smith and baby of Sanger, Mrs. Joe Des Ros of Wilton, Mrs. John Krownik of Wilton, Mrs. L. McBride of Bismarck, Clarence Olson of Frodo, Mont., and Nels A. Peterson of Velva, have been discharged from the hospital.

Called Out of Town
L. K. Thompson and Mrs. J. A. Graham were called to Princeton, Ill., Saturday by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. L. K. Thompson, Sr. Owing to the trains being snow-bound they were unable to reach Princeton before she passed away Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Thompson was well known in Bismarck, having spent a number of summers here, and has a host of friends and acquaintances.

whose sympathy goes out to the sorrowing family.

St. Alexius Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hostetler of Brisbane, Emanuel Neumann of Golden Valley, Mrs. Frank McCormick of the city, Wendell of Beitheim of Glen Ullin, Mrs. William Grossman and Mrs. J. A. Hoffman, both of the city, Alfred Becker of Pollock, S. D., and Miss Grace McGogy of the city, have entered the St. Alexius hospital for treatment. Mrs. C. W. Porter and baby girl of the city, Jack Walter of Zap, Butte, Farley of Grove, Miss Minnie Van Lishout of Mott, Miss Mary Thomas and John Kossan, both of the city, Frank Klinger of Mott, have been discharged from the hospital.

BANKRUPT SALE
of R. C. Rosen's up-to-date stock of Men's and Boys' clothing, shoes, etc. Big Bargains on everything.

AT THE MOVIES

CAPITOL THEATER
"The Prisoner of Zenda," which was shown yesterday at the Capitol theater, is one of the seasons super-plays. The magic of Rex Ingram, director of "The Four Horsemen," has given this old Anthony Hope classic of love and intrigue and adventure a new permanence on the screen. And as it comes to life in all the beauty and magnificence which only the screen could give it, it becomes a thing of pure romance and enchantment. This picture may or may not have cost Metro a million dollars, but it is certain that it would have been no more beautifully nor no more impressively made had it cost ten times that amount. It would be impossible to suggest actors who could better the performances of the various members of the cast which has been assembled to impersonate the roles of these familiar characters who have thrilled thousands either through the printed page or in the Edward Rose stage version. Lewis Stone gives a flawless performance of the dual role of Rastatt and King Rudolph. Alfee Terry is a most charming and regal Princess Flavia. Robert Edeson is an ideal Colonel Sapt and Stuart Holmes and Ramon Navarro as Black Michael and Rupert of Hentzau are the perfect villains of your imagination. Others who give splendid performances are Barbara La Marr, Malcolm McGregor, Edward Connelly and Lois Lee. The photography, which is of rare beauty, is by John F. Seitz.

BARGAINS FOR MEN
R. C. Rosen's Bankrupt stock of Men's and Boys' clothing, shoes, etc., now on sale.
Wet Wash is a new service we offer to our trade. For prices, Phone 684. Capital Steam Laundry Co.

Sealdsweet Florida Grapefruit

Sealdsweet Florida grapefruit are unsurpassed as breakfast fruits, the ideal base for all salads and served in countless other ways add healthful variety to meals.

Sealdsweet Florida Oranges

Sealdsweet Florida oranges are equally useful in planning balanced menus.

SEALDSWEET GRAPEFRUIT RICCIE
Made after a recipe of a famous recipe in "Home Lies for Jolies of Sealdsweet Florida Oranges and Grapefruit." Send for recipe, free. Address, Florida Citrus Exchange, 720 Citrus Exchange Building, Tampa, Florida.

Ask your fruit dealer for Sealdsweet Florida oranges and grapefruit. Insist that he supply you with them.

Don't Think

—that you are saving money—that you will get good results when you buy the big, or cheap can baking powders—the kinds that offer quantity and not quality—the kinds that are made to sell at bargain prices. Always call for

CALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER

It has been helping housewives on bake-day for over thirty years. It is the most popular brand in America—the most reliable of all leaveners. It is the best because it meets every baking requirement. Made in the largest, most sanitary baking powder factories in existence. The sale of Calumet is over 150% greater than that of any other baking powder. Test it yourself—keep it on the kitchen shelf.

Tip Top Top Coats

Take a look at our South window. There you'll see something to make your eyes water, and by the way — while you're at it, just walk over to our East window and take a peep at the finest selection of neckties you ever saw, but don't forget the fact that Tailoring is featured at

Klein TOCCERY

STLYE CENTER IN CENTER OF N. DAK.

Tribune Advertising

Every successful merchant and manufacturer advertises. That's one of the main reasons they have succeeded—they'll tell you so themselves.

For local advertising The Bismarck Tribune is the best possible medium—going into hundreds of homes of all classes—homes that constitute the buyers you wish to reach.

Watch the ads in The Tribune and see the advertisers who voice their agreement by using its columns.

The Tribune, Bismarck

Covers the Slope Like the Morning Sun.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Ole Tatley, Who Went To Klondike in Gold Rush, Passes Away

Word had been received in the city of the death of Ole Tatley at Monterey, Calif. The deceased was a brother of Henry Tatley, the Grand Pacific hotel, who now lives in Hollywood, Calif. Ole Tatley was formerly a resident of Bismarck, leaving during the gold rush for the Klondike about twenty-five years ago. He leaves many friends among the old timers here who will regret to hear of his death. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tatley, at Hollywood, and the remains laid to rest in the Hollywood cemetery, March 12. The pallbearers were Ed. Hughes and S. W. Herriek, of Bismarck, A. W. Marcel, S. M. Eyr, and Wm. Eyr, formerly of Bismarck and Chas. Rathman, formerly of Jamestown. Among others who attended the funeral were Col. C. B. Little, of Bismarck, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patterson, Dr. Kendrick and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gram, formerly of Bismarck, Gus Hermy, formerly of Linton, and Judge Biglow, formerly of Jamestown.

ST. PAUL MAY BURN LIGNITE

St. Paul, March 20.—An investigation to ascertain the feasibility of burning lignite coal will be conducted by a committee appointed by the Industrial promotion subdivision of the St. Paul association. It was announced today.

The committee will seek to learn if lignite is suitable for fuel for St. Paul consumers and in the investigation will cooperate with North Dakota coal operators.

Receiver Named For Bowbells Bank

Minot, March 20.—Judge John C. Lowe in district court here today named A. A. Swanson at present receiver of the Bank at Lone Tree and Kenmare to fill the same position in the closed First State Bank of Bowbells.

The First State bank at that place has been closed since last fall but previous to this time no receiver was in charge.

TONE UP THE KIDNEYS.

"Symptoms of kidney trouble are all gone. Water is clear and does not burn. Foley Kidney Pills certainly do the work," writes W. J. Grady, New Orleans, Louisiana. Backache, rheumatic pains, tired feeling, are symptoms of distressed kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills tone up the kidneys and quickly relieve kidney and bladder trouble. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's.

Ticket Sale on for "One Girl in a Million" at Harris & Woodmansee. Auditorium, tomorrow night.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Bismarck evidence—doubly proven.

Mrs. N. F. Reynolds, 417 Madison Ave., Bismarck, says: "I suffered from pains through my back and kidneys, and other symptoms of kidney trouble. My ankles swelled and I found it difficult to get my shoes on at times. After trying several different kidney remedies without getting the least help finally got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Lehart Drug Co., and a few convinced me that they were a good remedy. I continued using Doan's until all trace of the trouble had entirely disappeared."

OVER TWELVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Reynolds said: "I think as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I recommended them before. I have used them on several occasions since when I have taken cold and noticed a slight return of my former trouble and have always obtained prompt relief."

60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. ad.

NOTICE

The Board of Trustees of the First Presbyterian Church having determined to sell the building known as the Old Presbyterian Manse, situated immediately east of the First Presbyterian church, in the city of Bismarck.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned will receive bids for such building, including the plumbing and furnace herein, at the office of S. E. Bergeson & Son, until five o'clock P. M., on the 21st day of March, 1923. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for ten per cent of the amount of the bid, and the successful bidder shall be required to enter into an agreement to remove such building from said property on or prior to the 1st day of April, 1923. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Dated this 9th day of March, 1923.

R. M. BERGESON,
Secretary Board of Trustees,
First Presbyterian Church.

PHILADELPHIA SLAYER PREPARED VAULT FOR VICTIMS

MRS. WILHELMINA SILVA. MRS. MARY RAMES.

MANUEL SILVA. EMMA SILVA.

Investigation of the slaying of Mrs. Wilhelmina Silva and Mrs. Mary Rames disclosed that Manuel Silva had prepared a concrete death vault with racks for the bodies in the cellar of his Philadelphia home. According to the police, Silva killed his wife and mother-in-law and then attempted suicide. His daughter, Emma Silva, escaped by leaping through a window.

Sam Brown Belts For Letter Carriers

Very soon you may notice that your letter carrier bears a resemblance to an overseas officer. Here is First Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett inspecting the new Sam Brown belt for letter carriers which has been designed to cause equal distribution of weight.

"AND NO CRAP SHOOTING"

French officers are on good terms with the black pious in the mixed regiments now holding the Ruhr. Here is a French captain jesting with a couple of black privates. It is the presence of these colored soldiers that has intensified the resentment of the white native population.

SEVEN WARS WORRY WORLD

Fighting is raging at seven points in Europe and Asia. Lithuanians and Poles are engaged in a border dispute (1); in Ireland (2) the Free State continues its fight on insurgents; French invasion of the Ruhr (3) is characterized by increased violence; Arabs have risen against their Italian rulers in Tripoli (4); Turkey (5) has rejected the Lausanne treaty and is ready to fight; Nationalist riots have broken out in many parts of Egypt (6) and China (7) still is rent by internal dissensions and the plundering of bandit war lords.

CITY NEWS

Publishes a Song.

H. G. Howard, real estate dealer of Chicago, who has extensive holdings in the southwest part of the state and is well known here, has turned song-writer as a side-line. His composition, "Every Day," is reported to have a wide sale.

Freezes Face

W. J. O'Leary, state transportation officer, hiked five miles to Russo through a storm to get food for passengers on the snowbound Son train Saturday night, and froze his face during the hike, according to Minot dispatches.

Bismarck Hospital.

Nick Thabenko of Max, Everett Peterson of Pettibone, Mrs. Stephen Heinle of Lehr, Mrs. Henry Humann of Hazelton, W. Lefffield of New Salem, and Mrs. C. F. Wehneier of Hebron, have entered the Bismarck hospital for treatment. Mrs. M. C. Smith and baby of Sanger, Mrs. Joe Des Ros of Wilton, Mrs. John Krownyk of Wilton, Mrs. L. McBride of Bismarck, Clarence Olson of Froid, Mont., and Nels A. Peterson of Velva, have been discharged from the hospital.

Called Out of Town

L. K. Thompson and Mrs. J. A. Graham were called to Princeton, Ill., Saturday by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. L. K. Thompson. St. Owing to the trains being snow-bound they were unable to reach Princeton before she passed away Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Thompson was well known in Bismarck, having spent a number of summers here, and has a host of friends and acquaintances whose sympathy goes out to the sorrowing family.

St. Alexis Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hostetler of Brisbane, Emanuel Peumann of Golden Valley, Mrs. Frank McCormick of the city, Wendeline of Beitheim of Glen Ullin, Mrs. William Grossman and Mrs. J. A. Hoffman, both of the city, Alfred Becker of Pollock, S. D., and Miss Grace McGogy of the city, have entered the St. Alexis hospital for treatment. Mrs. C. W. Porter and baby girl of the city, Jack Weiler of Zap, Pat Farley of Grove, Miss Minnie Van Lishout of Mott, Miss Mary Thomas and John Kossow, both of the city, Frank Klinner of Mott have been discharged from the hospital.

BANKRUPT SALE

of R. C. Rosen's up-to-date stock of Men's and Boys' clothing, shoes, etc. Big Bargains on everything.

AT THE MOVIES

CAPITOL THEATER

"The Prisoner of Zenda," which was shown yesterday at the Capitol theater is one of the seasons' super-plays. The magic of Rex Ingram, director of "The Four Horsemen," has given this old Anthony Hope classic of love and intrigue and adventure a new permanence on the screen. And as it comes to life in all the beauty and magnificence which only the screen could give it, it becomes a thing of pure romance and enchantment.

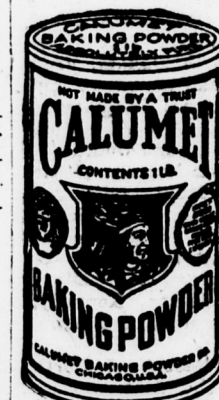

This picture may or may not have cost Metro a million dollars, but it is certain that it would have been no more beautiful nor no more impressively made had it cost ten times

Don't Think

—that you are saving money—that you will get good results when you buy the big, or cheap can baking powders—the kinds that offer quantity and not quality—the kinds that are made to sell at bargain prices. Always call for

CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

It has been helping housewives on bake-day for over thirty years. It is the most popular brand in America—the most reliable of all leaveners. It is the best because it meets every baking requirement. Made in the largest, most sanitary baking powder factories in existence.

The sale of Calumet is over 150% greater than that of any other baking powder. Test it yourself—keep it on the kitchen shelf.

Tip Top Top Coats

Take a look at our South window. There you'll see something to make your eyes water, and by the way — while you're at it, just walk over to our East window and take a peep at the finest selection of neckties you ever saw, but don't forget the fact that Tailoring is featured at that amount. It would be impossible to suggest actors who could better the performances of the various members of the cast which has been assembled to impersonate the roles of these familiar characters who have thrilled thousands either through the printed page or in the Edward Rose stage version.

STLYE CENTER IN CENTER OF N. DAK.

Lewis Stone gives a flawless performance of the dual role of Rensselaer and King Rudolph. Alfee Terry is a most charming and regal Princess Flavia. Robert Edeson is an ideal Colonel Sapt and Stuart Holmes and Ramon Navarro as Black Michael and Rupert of Hentzau are the perfect villains of your imagination. Others who give splendid performances are Barbara La Marr, Malcolm McGregor, Edward Connelly and Lois Lee.

The photography, which is of rare beauty, is by John F. Seitz.

BARGAINS FOR MEN

R. C. Rosen's Bankrupt stock of Men's and Boys' clothing, shoes, etc., now on sale.

Wet Wash is a new service we offer to our trade. For prices, Phone 681. Capital Steam Laundry Co.

Sealdsweet Florida Grapefruit

Sealdsweet Florida grapefruit are unsurpassed as breakfast fruits, the ideal base for all salads and served in countless other ways add healthful variety to meals.

Sealdsweet Florida Oranges

Sealdsweet Florida oranges are equally useful in planning balanced menus.

Ask your fruit dealer for Sealdsweet Florida oranges and grapefruit. Insist that he supply you with them.

Tribune Advertising

Every successful merchant and manufacturer advertises. That's one of the main reasons they have succeeded—they'll tell you so themselves.

For local advertising The Bismarck Tribune is the best possible medium—going into hundreds of homes of all classes—homes that constitute the buyers you wish to reach.

Watch the ads in The Tribune and see the advertisers who voice their agreement by using its columns.

The Tribune, Bismarck

Covers the Slope Like the Morning Sun.

Social and Personal

Presbyterian Ladies Give Pot Luck Supper

A pot luck supper will be given on the Presbyterian church Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock with the following ladies as hostesses:

Misses James Nehergall, J. P. French, Elva Lark Whitson, W. J. Lomas, R. R. Smyth, A. M. Brandt, W. A. McDonald, S. E. Boyce, L. Heath, F. L. Schumann, G. R. Thompson and Miss H. Benoit.

All members are invited to come bring their friends and to bring something for supper, which will be served cafeteria style. The committee will furnish rolls, coffee, and cream.

Miss Maher Gives Party for Friends

Miss Marguerite Maher of 622 Third street, was hostess Saturday evening to fourteen of her friends from the Business college and Woolworth store. The evening was delightfully spent in music, dancing and games. Decorations were pleasingly carried out in St. Patrick colors of green and white, streamers and green clover leaves producing an artistic effect. At midnight a course luncheon was served.

FANCY DRESS FOR ROTARIANS

Bismarck's Rotary fellowship will wear blue fizzes with yellow lettering bearing the name of Bismarck on the front and the Rotary symbol, carry canes to which are attached Bismarck pennants, and carry a large flag in the parade which is an important feature of the ninth annual convention at St. Paul.

Bismarck hopes to be the convention city at their next meeting, at least the delegation is going to extend an invitation to the Rotarians to come to Bismarck next year.

FOURTEENTH CLUB MEETS

The Fourteenth club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. L. Nussle tomorrow afternoon when the program will be devoted to juvenile literature. Mrs. A. M. Brandt will present the subject of "Lousa May Alcott" and Frances Hanson Burnett. Mrs. C. L. Yeung will read a paper on "Jumbo White and Riley and James W. Foley" while the news of the fortnight will be reviewed by Mrs. A. M. Christensen.

AMONG CITY VISITORS

Edgar Hanson and G. V. Hansen of Oakes, L. H. Ransom of Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thompson of Indian, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mott of Baldwin, James Shanon of Max, James H. Tophin of Wilton, Donald Myres of Garrison, Paul Roscoe of Garrison, Emil Gamelgard and Alfred Gamelgard of Luverne, were among the city visitors here today.

UNITE IN MARRIAGE

The marriage of Miss Ida Fosberg and James H. Tophin, both of Wilton, were united in marriage at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the pastor's study of the Baptist church. Miss Lena Fosberg and Alfred Fosberg acted as witnesses. The young couple expect to make their home in Wilton.

STOP OVER ON WAY TO ST. PAUL

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coolen of Garrison, who stopped over in Bismarck last night left this morning for St. Paul, Minn., where they will visit with relatives. They may make their home in that city.

HERE ATTENDING COURT

R. A. Stone, former assistant attorney general of Minnesota; O. M. Nelson, vice president of First National bank of St. Paul and former Gov. John Burke of Fargo, are in Bismarck on federal court business.

GUEST AT HOME OF SON

Mrs. C. A. Basie of Litchfield, Minn., who has been the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Basie for some time past left this morning for Jamestown to visit with her sister.

TRINITY LUTHERAN LADIES AID

The ladies of Trinity English Lutheran church holds its monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon. Refreshments served as usual. Members and friends please meet up in full force.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Frank Delaney of Terry, Mont., brother of Mrs. J. W. Murphy, and Mr. Kerner of Grand Forks, an uncle of Mrs. Murphy was here to attend the funeral of Miss Mary Murphy.

J. L. BELL III

J. L. Bell of the First National bank was unable to accompany the Rotary delegation on their trip to St. Paul, Minn., to attend the ninth annual convention of the Rotary club there because of illness.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

The Young Peoples society of the Trinity Lutheran church will give their program at the church Thursday night.

Anti-Flirt Club in Capitol

Because bold, bad men in the nation's Capitol have failed to read their daily etiquet column, and hence overlooked the formality of an introduction, Washington girls have organized to protect themselves from unwelcome advances. Here are some charter members of the Anti-Flirt Club. Inset shows Alice Reighly, president.

day night instead of Wednesday as announced in church.

RETURNS FROM EAST

Mrs. G. A. Rawlings has returned from a visit of three weeks in New York City, and Washington, D. C. Enroute she stopped for a short time in Chicago, Ill.

LUTHERAN LADIES AID

The Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet tomorrow afternoon in the church parlors. Friends and members are cordially invited to attend.

STOPPING AT GRAND PACIFIC

Mrs. R. E. Trousdale and son, Robert of Mott, are stopping at the Grand Pacific hotel, while spending the week in Bismarck visiting and shopping.

APPEAR IN RECITAL

The piano pupils of Mrs. Genevieve Menard Hughes will appear in recital at the high school auditorium tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock.

BAPTIST LADIES AID

The Baptist Ladies Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Otto Dismal. A good attendance is desired.

PLAN FOR EASTER BALL

The Catholic Daughters of America are making preparations for their Easter ball to be held at Patterson hall, April 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Brazer

have moved into the property at 119 Third street which will be their home.

VISITING HUSBAND

Mrs. John O'Leary of Foxholm, is in town visiting her husband, who is a member of the jury.

HERE ON BUSINESS

Senator Frank Playnor of Valley City is in Bismarck on business.

Mrs. Cecil Director and brother

George MacTigue of Wilton arrived in Bismarck yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. G. Strandemo

of Baldwin, were city visitors here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berg of Wilton

were city visitors here today.

P. S. Berg of Dickinson

was a business caller here today.

John Parkinson is confined to his home by illness.

Dance at Patterson Hall

Wednesday and Saturday evenings

NOTICE

The Knights of Pythias will have their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. Hall.

ORDER YOUR RECORDS

By Mail—We Pay the Postage. HOSKINS-MEYER

HANWELL THE JEWELER
BISMARCK, N. D.
DIAMONDS—JEWELRY

Diamond Mountings.
Iridio-platinum, white, and green gold in exceptional designs, distinctive and original—the better kind.
Wedding rings to match all diamond mountings.

F. A. KNOWLES
Jeweler. Bismarck.
DIAMONDS our specialty.
We mount your diamonds while you wait.

CLASSMATES ACT AS PALLBEARERS

Friday morning a shadow of gloom was cast over St. Mary's school, when the death of Mary Murphy was announced. She had been ill only a few days, so her death came as a shock for none of the students were aware of the fact that her life was in danger.

She had been at St. Mary's for the most part of a half year, having entered the fifth grade after coming here with her parents from Raleigh. During these years she had endeared herself among teachers and pupils. Everyone who came to know her learned to appreciate the sterling worth and nobility of her character. The teachers and students all realize the loss of a true friend and classmate.

From among them, although Mary was but a child, the audience of the example will ever remain as an inspiration. All feel that she has not left us forever, but has merely gone on before to prepare the way for her friends.

Her classmates, Carl Maussen, Charles McCarty, Richard Horner, William Greyblich, Clement Kelly, Clemons Boesflug, were pall bearers, and her intimate friends, Rollett Lockwood, Frances Wynkoop, Florence Wynkoop, Arlene Fisher, Agnes Koehn and Anna Braun, were honorary pall bearers.

The entire student body attended the funeral as well as the Sodality of which Mary was a devoted member. The Knights of Columbus, also attended in a body.

Father Slag, to whom the deceased was so well known, paid a beautiful tribute to her memory, dwelling particularly on her virtues of modesty and humility.

The teachers and students extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives.

"SKIN DEEP" IS THRILLER

Ince Feature Picture Being Shown at Eltinge

Bud Doyle crawled out of bed to the window. The weakness of a long illness had left him faint and trembling.

On his unsteady journey across the room his hand rested for a moment on the bureau. His fingers touched something cold and metallic. It was a mirror. By instinct his fingers closed upon it. Ordinarily Bud was not very much interested in mirrors. The police had always shown considerably more interest in his face than he had ever felt himself but as he touched the mirror there did come to his mind a faint curiosity to know just what happens to a face when you fall out of an aeroplane upon it.

He took one look out of the window, then he lifted the mirror to the light.

What he saw almost stopped the blood in his veins.

The face that he saw in the mirror was not his face.

This, with the extraordinary event which followed, is one of the thrilling and dramatic situations in Thomas H. Ince's super-play, which will be the feature picture attraction at the Eltinge theater for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Minervin piano accordion artist also entertains at the Eltinge for the same three days.

NOTICE A. O. U. W.

The regular meeting will be held at the A. O. U. W. Hall tonight.

For First Class Dry Clean ing. Call Capital Laundry Co. Phone 684.

Sew And Save

Here are Some Examples of Economy in Home Sewing:

We are well prepared for

Springtime Dressmaking

THE new fabrics are aglow with oriental brilliancy. Styles were never so beautiful as they are today, and the new season's fabrics have an oriental brilliancy and originality absolutely in keeping with Spring itself.

of child can lay out a PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERN

and lay out Pattern Cutting and Construction Guidebook

Will cost you complete $4.04

1577 (Above)—Size 36 required: 4 yds. 40 in. Plain Voile $3.00 1 1/2 yds. Lace $2.50 4 yds. Lace $2.50 1 yd. Lining .50 1 Dress Pattern .35 Findings .50 Will cost you complete $7.88

1500 (Right)—Size 30 required: 3 yds. Plain Suiting $2.50 1 1/2 yds. Plain Trim .18 1 yds. Dress Pattern .35 Findings .50 Will cost you complete $3.94

1577 (Right)—Size 36 required: 5 yds. Tissue Gingham $2.50 1 1/2 yds. 45 in. Organza $2.50 1 yds. 45 in. Organza $2.50 1 Dress Pattern .35 Findings .50 Will cost you complete $5.92

1577 (Above)—Size 36 required: 4 yds. 40 in. Plain Voile $3.00 1 1/2 yds. Lace $2.50 4 yds. Lace $2.50 1 yds. Lining .50 1 Dress Pattern .35 Findings .50 Will cost you complete $7.88

1500 (Right)—Size 30 required: 3 yds. Plain Suiting $2.50 1 1/2 yds. Plain Trim .18 1 yds. Dress Pattern .35 Findings .50 Will cost you complete $3.94

1577 (Right)—Size 36 required: 5 yds. Tissue Gingham $2.50 1 1/2 yds. 45 in. Organza $2.50 1 yds. 45 in. Organza $2.50 1 Dress Pattern .35 Findings .50 Will cost you complete $5.92

5000 CASH PRIZES GIVEN AWAY in our Home Sewing Contest for Girls

A. W. LUCAS CO.
Bismarck's Busy Shopping Center

Succumbs to Peculiar Disease

Funeral services for G. A. Easton of Kintyre who passed away at a local hospital Sunday will be held in Kintyre. Mr. Easton who was a well known farmer of the Kintyre region suffered with a peculiar disease known as Parkinson's disease. He was only ill for several weeks although not in the most robust health for a time previous. He is survived by a wife and a son and other relatives.

"SKIN DEEP" IS THRILLER

Ince Feature Picture Being Shown at Eltinge

Bud Doyle crawled out of bed to the window. The weakness of a long illness had left him faint and trembling.

On his unsteady journey across the room his hand rested for a moment on the bureau. His fingers touched something cold and metallic. It was a mirror. By instinct his fingers closed upon it. Ordinarily Bud was not very much interested in mirrors. The police had always shown considerably more interest in his face than he had ever felt himself but as he touched the mirror there did come to his mind a faint curiosity to know just what happens to a face when you fall out of an aeroplane upon it.

He took one look out of the window, then he lifted the mirror to the light.

What he saw almost stopped the blood in his veins.

The face that he saw in the mirror was not his face.

This, with the extraordinary event which followed, is one of the thrilling and dramatic situations in Thomas H. Ince's super-play, which will be the feature picture attraction at the Eltinge theater for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Minervin piano accordion artist also entertains at the Eltinge for the same three days.

NOTICE A. O. U. W.

The regular meeting will be held at the A. O. U. W. Hall tonight.

For First Class Dry Clean ing. Call Capital Laundry Co. Phone 684.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Brazer

have moved into the property at 119 Third street which will be their home.

VISITING HUSBAND

Mrs. John O'Leary of Foxholm, is in town visiting her husband, who is a member of the jury.

HERE ON BUSINESS

Senator Frank Playnor of Valley City is in Bismarck on business.

Mrs. Cecil Director and brother

George MacTigue of Wilton arrived in Bismarck yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. G. Strandemo

of Baldwin, were city visitors here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berg of Wilton

were city visitors here today.

P. S. Berg of Dickinson

was a business caller here today.

John Parkinson is confined to his home by illness.

Dance at Patterson Hall

Wednesday and Saturday evenings

NOTICE

The Knights of Pythias will have their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. Hall.

ORDER YOUR RECORDS

By Mail—We Pay the Postage. HOSKINS-MEYER

HANWELL THE JEWELER

BISMARCK, N. D.
DIAMONDS—JEWELRY

Diamond Mountings.
Iridio-platinum, white, and green gold in exceptional designs, distinctive and original—the better kind.
Wedding rings to match all diamond mountings.

F. A. KNOWLES
Jeweler. Bismarck.
DIAMONDS our specialty.
We mount your diamonds while you wait.

The Tangle

AN INTIMATE STORY OF INNERMOST EMOTIONS REVEALED IN PRIVATE LETTERS
COPYRIGHT 1923—NEA SERVICE INC.

LETTER FROM LESLIE HAMILTON TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

MY DEAR BOY:

As you know that I was going to do, I went to see you today, Miss Priscilla Bradford, on Friday afternoon and took her to the club to ten with your cousin, Mary Alden. She calls you "Cousin John Alden."

I think my young sister, Alice, called the time when she said—"Yes, John, I really could."

I think that's about all of interest that happened. Those two girls never did say a word unless I started the conversation. I knew they were enjoying me from the top of my married hair to the new buckle shoes on my feet, which, by the way, have high French heels and contrasted awfully with their scandalous outfits.

Bartley, I'm so glad we are not going to live in your old home town. Never could be friends with your Priscilla Bradford if I could live to be a thousand years old.

You haven't said one word to me about whether you ever told another girl you loved her. Surely you did not tell that Bradford girl that, did you? Don't think it is too trivial a question to answer, John, for I could not bear it if I thought you had made love to some other girl in just the dear way that you have made love to me.

Not that I am jealous! Oh no! I never could be jealous; that is an acknowledgment of inferiority and I thank my stars that I have no inferiority complex.

Dear boy, if I am rambling along in this letter just for the mere sake of talking to you. It some way brings me almost within your dear arms. I let my imagination revel a little and now I'm sitting on the arm of your chair, my cheek tight against yours, and instead of writing it, I am saying it—"Thank you and I am just as impatient as you for that day when you and I will go away together—just you and me."

Where are we going on our wedding trip, John? I hadn't thought of that before, because he is far or near, east or west, north or south, I care not if you are with Your own, LESLIE.

to tell Miss Bradford "this is the man we all thought Miss Hamilton would marry."

Aunt, bless his heart, loyal to me to the last, answered, "This man had no such impression as that, Miss Alden, although he would have been happy to have been principal in the evening drama instead of standing on the side lines and giving a wordless blessing."

I could have hugged him! Yes, John, I really could.

I think that's about all of interest that happened. Those two girls never did say a word unless I started the conversation. I knew they were enjoying me from the top of my married hair to the new buckle shoes on my feet, which, by the way, have high French heels and contrasted awfully with their scandalous outfits.

Bartley, I'm so glad we are not going to live in your old home town. Never could be friends with your Priscilla Bradford if I could live to be a thousand years old.

You haven't said one word to me about whether you ever told another girl you loved her. Surely you did not tell that Bradford girl that, did you? Don't think it is too trivial a question to answer, John, for I could not bear it if I thought you had made love to some other girl in just the dear way that you have made love to me.

Not that I am jealous! Oh no! I never could be jealous; that is an acknowledgment of inferiority and I thank my stars that I have no inferiority complex.

Dear boy, if I am rambling along in this letter just for the mere sake of talking to you. It some way brings me almost within your dear arms. I let my imagination revel a little and now I'm sitting on the arm of your chair, my cheek tight against yours, and instead of writing it, I am saying it—"Thank you and I am just as impatient as you for that day when you and I will go away together—just you and me."

Where are we going on our wedding trip, John? I hadn't thought of that before, because he is far or near, east or west, north or south, I care not if you are with Your own, LESLIE.

DYE OLD DRESS OR DRAPERY IN DIAMOND DYES

Buy "Diamond Dyes" and follow the simple directions in every package. Don't wonder whether you can dye or tint successfully, because every home dyer even if you have never dyed before. Wear faded dress, skirts, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything becomes like new again. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, or do any harm.

HERE ARE THE MCKENZIE HOTEL FIVE

They play for the dances at Patterson's Hall every Wednesday and Saturday nights. Rates for in city $5 an Hour, outside of city same Rate Plus railroad fare and Hotel expense.

Perfect Rinsing

Insures Longer Wear.

It is almost impossible for the housewife to rinse every particle of soap from her wash. All clothes laundered here are rinsed in many changes of soft pure water from our own artesian well, then the clothes are dried by a delicate machine that DRAWS the moisture out. Thus there is no chance of injuring the fabric or tearing off buttons as done by the old winger method. We save you money, energy, and your clothes.

LET US SHOW YOU.

Capital Laundry Co.
Launderiers and Dry Cleaners. Phone 684

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

Walter G. Black of Mandan, who will become state engineer on April 1 by appointment of Governor Nelson, has filed his bond and oath of office.

LESIE.

Your Health is at Stake if You Suffer from Constipation!

Every man, woman and child who has constipation or constipation eyes that should have no stone unturned to get instant relief! Keep away from the dangers of pills and cathartics, which are almost as much to be dreaded as constipation itself. Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN—and it is Kellogg's Bran that will give permanent relief if eaten regularly.

Most cases of Bright's and diabetes can be traced to constipation; in its milder form constipation is responsible for sick headaches, nausea, pimples, sour breath, etc. And, you say, right here—and guarantee it! But we say—eat Kellogg's Bran, it cures regularly, will give you permanent relief.

But Kellogg's Bran as a cereal. You'll enjoy it as much as a cereal. Or, sprinkle it on or mix it with hot or cold cereals. Many like it cooked with hot cereals. Two tablespoonfuls of Bran should be added in each instance. You have missed much not to have eaten Kellogg's Bran made into muffins, raisin bread or many other bakery articles. Receive an every package. Prominent hotels, restaurants and clubs serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

Allies

Two of the best things that a man can have are a life insurance policy and a savings account. They are his allies in helping him to cultivate one of the finest qualities of citizenship—thrift.

The two work together admirably. The life insurance policy looks forward to a more or less remote future; the savings account is a provision for more immediate emergencies. For the man of moderate income the savings account can be made the handmaid of the life insurance policy since by setting aside a portion of his income each week into a savings account, funds are provided for meeting the insurance premium when it falls due.

Both are a provision for a host of eventualities that may arise any day. The man who is wise will be foresighted enough to possess himself of both for they are the agencies through which he can create an estate for himself.

The First National Bank

The Pioneer Bank

HERE ARE THE MCKENZIE HOTEL FIVE

They play for the dances at Patterson's Hall every Wednesday and Saturday nights. Rates for in city $5 an Hour, outside of city same Rate Plus railroad fare and Hotel expense.

Perfect Rinsing

Insures Longer Wear.

It is almost impossible for the housewife to rinse every particle of soap from her wash. All clothes laundered here are rinsed in many changes of soft pure water from our own artesian well, then the clothes are dried by a delicate machine that DRAWS the moisture out. Thus there is no chance of injuring the fabric or tearing off buttons as done by the old winger method. We save you money, energy, and your clothes.

LET US SHOW YOU.

Capital Laundry Co.
Launderiers and Dry Cleaners. Phone 684

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING RUG CLEANING

ASK US ABOUT FINISHED WORK

ROUGH DRY WET WASH DRY CLEANING

THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE

Entered at the Postoffice, Bismarck, N. D., as Second Class Matter.

BISMARCK TRIBUNE CO. Publishers

Foreign Representatives
G. LOGAN PAYNE COMPANY

CHICAGO Marquette Bldg.
DETROIT Kresge Bldg.
PAYNE, BURNS AND SMITH
NEW YORK Fifth Ave. Bldg.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use or republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION

SUBSCRIPTION RATES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

Daily by carrier, per year.....$7.20
 Daily by mail, per year (in Bismarck).....7.20
 Daily by mail, per year (in state outside Bismarck)..... 5.00
 Daily by mail, outside of North Dakota..... 6.00

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
 (Established 1873)

FARMERS SHOULD RESPOND

There have been so many assaults made upon the federal reserve system from propagandists and politicians, that it will be refreshing to get some first hand facts relative to the functions of that organization from John R. Mitchell, member of the federal reserve board.

Accompanied by editors of leading farm journals, businessmen of the Twin Cities and officials of the Ninth District Reserve Bank, Mr. Mitchell will be present at three conferences in this state so that some of the misunderstandings as to the operation of this system may be cleared up.

It has been a favorite political sport to attack the federal reserve system. Every banking scheme has its imperfections. None responds under certain economic pressure as readily or as beneficially as its sponsors desire, but the fact remains that the federal reserve system has served wonderfully the business needs of the nation.

A system can not go beyond the scope or realm for which it was devised. As the banks come in under the system more generally, it can administer to the financial needs of the nation and particularly to the necessity of the agricultural centers more efficiently.

The main object of the conference in Bismarck, March 27, is to find out how a better return can be secured on the 1923 crop. For that reason it is urgently requested that as many farmers as possible come to Bismarck and meet these experts and learn first hand just how the reserve system can better serve their financial needs.

It is planned to combine this conference with the monthly forum of the Association of Commerce, but any farmer or businessman whether a member of the Association or not is welcome to attend.

There should be a representative gathering to hear these men on a topic of most vital interest to the businessman. Whether he is a farmer or city dweller makes no difference, both are equally interested in the problems Mr. Mitchell and his associates on the federal reserve board are seeking to solve.

TO LIVE LONG

Will you live to a ripe old age? That depends more on your ancestors than on yourself. Such is the conclusion reached by Dr. Raymond Pearl of Johns Hopkins University.

Says Pearl: "The most important thing a person can do toward attaining a ripe old age is to pick the right kind of parents and grandparents."

This expresses a definite idea, though in a way that will seem impossible to most of us. However, there are many who believe that we select our parents before coming into the world. This belief is a branch of the mysticism now epidemic.

Many of us die young or drag along with bad health, as a result of some ancestor's dissipation or the unhealthy economic conditions that surrounded him back yonder in the past.

Dr. Pearl compares us with clocks that are wound up to run varying lengths of time. "Some men have been wound for a full 90-year run, others are only partly wound and stop at 40, 65 or some other point. In human affairs the original winding is heredity. Sand in the works is environment—disease, or mode of life."

You have often heard it said: "He'll live to a very old age. He comes from long-lived stock."

If you get out the records kept in the family Bible or elsewhere, and figure the average age at which your direct ancestors died for several generations back, you'll have the most probable age of your own death. Observe that the figure will express your average or most probable chance. You may differ from the average—live longer or shorter. That depends largely on the care you are able to take of your body and mind.

How about sudden death—for instance, the man run down by an auto? Dr. Pearl says heredity is a powerful influence even in such cases of "unavoidable accident." If the victim had inherited keen wits and swift judgment, he probably would have been too alert to be struck by a motorcar.

The age at which we die is determined by a combination of heredity and environment. And environment includes early training and diet, as well as later surroundings and occupation.

Karl Pearson's researches convinced him that there is a scientifically exact relation between the death age of father and son. He decided that the death age is 50 to 75 per cent determined by hereditary factors, and that these are so powerful they cannot be materially modified by environment.

The clear-cut lesson in all this is that the way we live and take care of our health today will, to large extent, fix the number of years our sons, grandsons and later descendants will live. The greatest legacy for the future is sensible living in our generation.

POISON

The campaign against wood alcohol is gaining headway. Five state legislatures in the middle west have passed or are considering legislation making it a murder or manslaughter charge to sell poison booze.

The bootlegger who knowingly peddles wood alcohol under a counterfeit label kills by premeditation.

At this stage of the game, we need more attention to prohibition of poison booze than to prohibition of good whisky. The reckless and feeble-minded must be protected.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

HARMONY FOR THE PARTY

There will eventually be harmony in the Democratic party of North Dakota even if we have to fight to it.

This harmony will be brought about by a platform of principles upon which those who stand as Democrats and those who stand for other principles are not Democrats.

As we view these principles at the present time privileges for none.

A tariff that will be used to support the government and not to "protect" any group of men.

The control of the currency should be in the hands of men interested in the welfare of the people and not in the interests of manufacturers or any other class of industry.

The status of North Dakota should dispose of its industries—mill, elevator, bank and the like and when you remove the drain of "protection," unjust freight rates and special privileges from the neck of the farmer he will be able to take care of himself without special legislation.

The Democratic party has always stood for low taxes and for economy in government and it will cling to that platform. State Democrat, Fargo

IDEAS CHANGED

What's the matter with that man Townley, anyway? For years he has been filling us up on the benefits of state owned utilities, but the other day, at Sioux Falls, S. D., he told the farmers they would be full of prunes if they went in for establishing, taxes, mills, elevators and other businesses. If this keeps on pretty soon we'll be full of disbelief in the reliability of our great salvationists. Beach Advance.

ONLY A SQUARE DEAL

To the west of the Missouri stretches the broad fertile plateau of the Slope country and beyond are the Bad Lands such scenes of grandeur and in history, fifteen counties containing some of the best land ever kissed by the sun and boasting as its inhabitants the finest lot of people on earth. It is an empire without itself although on the map it is within the boundaries of the great state of North Dakota.

The most of us who dwell here are the Slope are proud of this section of the state are proud of North Dakota. Whenever the good name of the state or its worth is challenged, we uphold and defend it to the last ditch. Whenever a project is launched that will work to the benefit of the state as a whole, we get behind it solidly and put it across. We have always been glad to do this without discriminating against any section or the people living within that section.

But those who live to the east of the turbulent Missouri and particularly the politicians, have not been so generous in their views. From their attitude it would appear that the most of them regard that section of North Dakota situated west of the Missouri as a bleak and desolate wilderness, uninhabited by savages, or at the best "poor white trash." About the only thing they come down from off their lofty perch and look toward the Slope with an anxious or even kindly eye is during election years when they need the support of the voters to put their favorite candidates across. Then they are willing to promise almost anything in order to gain the end but are always careful to retain the fruits of their labor while they ship the "chucks" out here across the river.

Not only are politicians inclined to take this view but residents of cities in the eastern part of the state also look with disdain upon the Slope country. Whipping the mantle of exclusiveness about them they labor under the delusion that North Dakota began and end within their corporate limits and pray that their delusion may some day come true. They are perfectly willing that the people of this end of the state shall continue to pay taxes but they demand the right to say how this money shall be spent. They want to take everything and give nothing in return.

The broad expanse of the Slope would make a great state in itself. Secession might solve the existing difficulty.

We would not leave the impression, however, that the people of the Slope wish to separate themselves from North Dakota or will ever resort to the method suggested above but they do want a square deal and the consideration in legislative dealings to which they are justly entitled. They never have forgotten it in the past but they do demand it for the future. Dickinson Press.

TAKES OFFICE SOON.

Bowbells, N. D., Mar. 20.—Charles J. Kopriva, who recently on order of Judge A. G. Burr in district court at Crosby, was reinstated as auditor of Burke county, will start another term of office on April 1, having been re-elected as auditor at the general election last November. The removal case against Kopriva was dismissed by Judge Burr after counsel for the state had declined to proceed with the introduction of testimony.

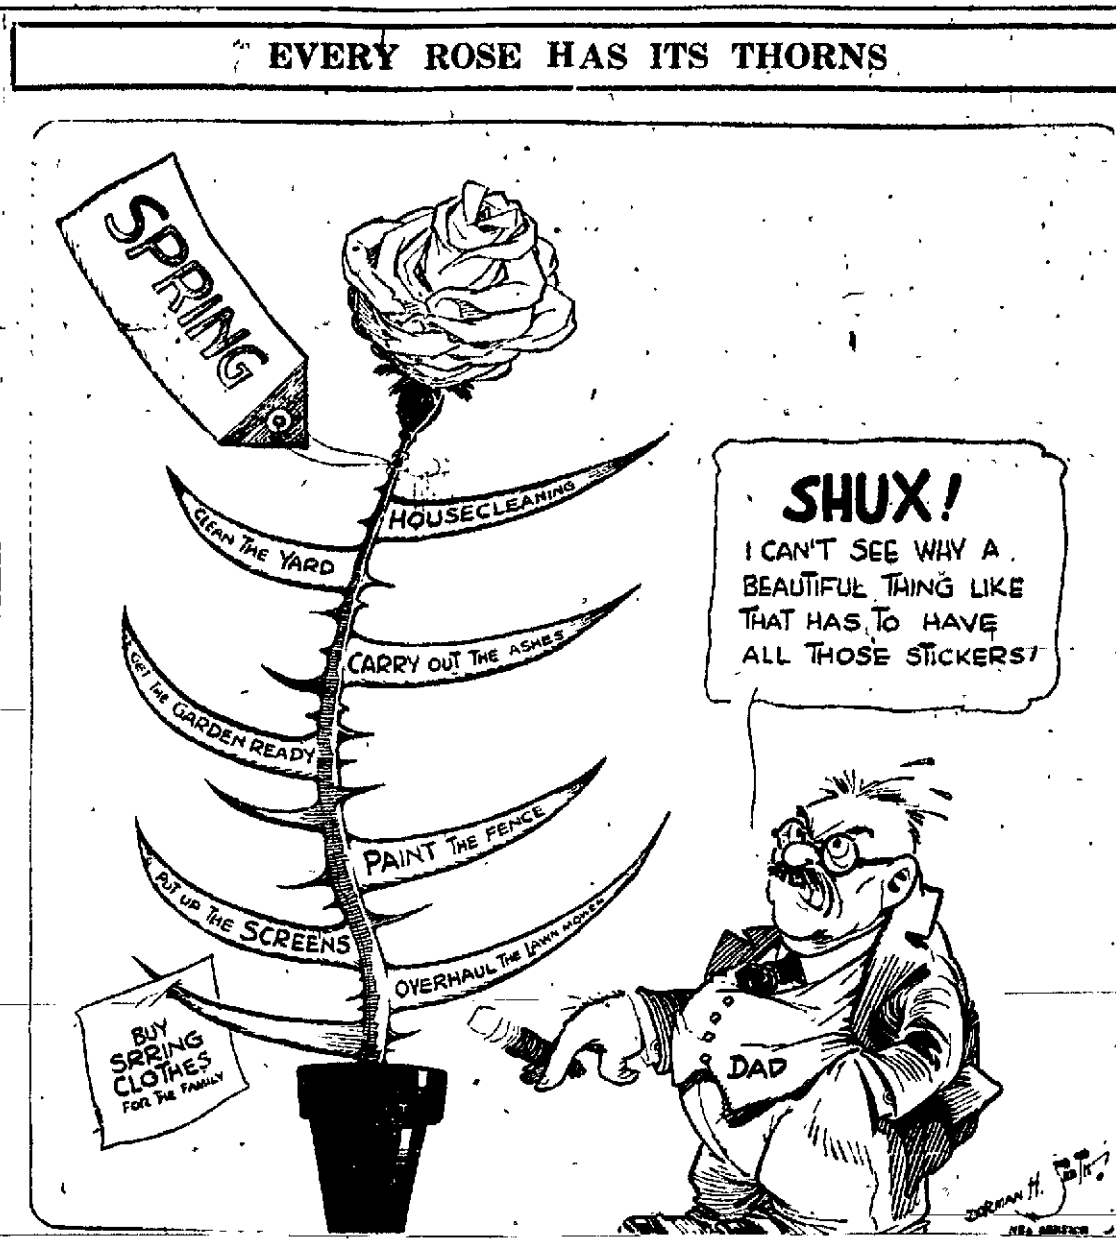

According to the law, as interpreted by attorneys here, Kopriva was drawn full pay for the time he was out of office, and also have the costs of the action defrayed by the petitioners who sought his removal.

INVENTS WIRE STRETCHER.

Washburn, N. D., Mar. 20.—W. F. Doepke, prominent farmer living west of town, has invented a wire stretcher, which he will place on the market in a short time.

Mr. Doepke stated that he had been working on it for the last eight years, first starting out in a crude way, making a stretcher in answer to his own purpose.

The stretcher is different from the others on the market, for the reason that it will stretch any kind of wire fencing.

THE WINDS OF DEATH
 BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM
 Copyright, 1922, by E. Phillips Oppenheim
 Arrgt. NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Yendetta begins between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal, and SIR NORMAN GREYES, once of Scotland Yard, when Sayers' beautiful housemaid, JANET, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sayers' wife and accomplice. While Sir Norman is living at his country house the police appeal to him to help run to earth a criminal whom the believe to be at the head of a dangerous gang.

On his way to London, Greyes' car is stopped and he is shot through the shoulder. Janet receives money and jewels from a mysterious source. Greyes asks Janet to dine with him. Janet accepts. She later visits Michael, who is taking illness in a nursing home.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY

Janet continues. She closed the door, and I advanced toward the lady, only to find her back with a little exclamation. I thought that there must be some mistake. The man who sat up in bed, watching me, seemed at first slight, a stranger. His hair, which had been dark, was now a sandy gray, and he wore a short, stubby mustache of the same color. His cheeks had fallen in; his forehead seemed more prominent. "I have had to starve myself to get thin. I took the place of the name of a business acquaintance upon the boat. It was quite a smart piece of work. I am supposed to be suffering from a nervous breakdown. Bosh. I haven't a nerve in my body."

"You left me alone for a long time," I reminded him.

"I was fighting for my life," he answered grimly. "You don't know the inner workings of the game, so I can't explain. I was hemmed in. As soon as I broke away, they were never on to me again. I brought out the coup of my life in New York, but things went wrong. Janet, you know what that means."

"You killed some one?" I whispered.

"I had no intention of doing anything of the sort," he answered. "It was Hartley, the banker, himself. He forced me into a fight at close quarters. We exchanged shots. I was wounded. So was he. He was in miserable health, though, and he never recovered. The shock killed him as much as anything. I got away all right, but it means all or nothing for the future."

"If you have enough," I suggested, "why not try the other end of the world?"

"I have thought of everywhere," he answered, "of Indo-China, the South Sea Islands, New Guinea, the far South American states. They are all hopeless. The eyes follow. There is safety only under the shadow of an arm."

"What about our meeting?" I asked. "I am known."

"It is a problem to be solved," he said slowly. "There is risk in it; yet the thought of parting with you, Janet, is like a clutching hand laid upon my heart."

It was the first word of the sort he had ever spoken to me, and again for some reason I shivered.

"What is your need of me now?" I demanded.

"To get rid of Norman Greyes," he replied.

There was a silence during which I felt that he was studying my face,

EVERETT TRUE BY CONDO

EVERETT, WAS SAM GROGGS IN THE OFFICE THIS MORNING WHILE I WAS OUT?

HELLO! — I DIDN'T GET THE LAST OF WHAT YOU SAID! —

OH, YES — YES, NOW I CAN HEAR YOU VERY PLAINLY! GO AHEAD.

ed to have increased in size and to flash with a softer brilliance. We sat at a corner table against the wall at Soto's where the room was, as usual, filled with beautiful women. There was no one who attracted so much attention as my companion. There was no one who deserved it.

"You think I am looking well?" she asked, in reply to some observation of mine.

"Wonderfully," I replied. "Also if I may be allowed to comment upon it, changed. You look as though you had found some new interest in life."

"She laughed a little bitterly. "Where should I seek it?" she asked.

"Perhaps the change is internal," I suggested. "Perhaps your outlook upon life is changing. Perhaps you have made up your mind to put away the false gods."

"I have traveled too far along one road," she answered harshly.

It was at this stage in our conversation that I made up my mind that it were better for me to see this woman no more. Our eyes met, and she suddenly was not hard at all. I seemed to look into her soul, and there were things there which I could not understand. I was thankful that the changing began just then.

"I ask no question," was the cold reply. "I shall know if you are ever faithful. A little present for you, Janet."

He brought his hand from under the pillow and handed me an exquisitely chased gold box, a curio of strange shape and with small enamel figures inside. I exclaimed with delight. He handed the box to me. "I was filled with white powder, on the top of which reposed a tiny powder-puff."

"Be careful not to let any of the powder get near your mouth," he enjoined. "A pinch upon the food or in the glass is sufficient. Take it."

I dropped it into the silk bag I was carrying. I was trying to tell myself that I had killed a man before. "That half-crown cost me one hundred pounds," he said. "Men scour the world for it. You can handle the powder freely. There is no danger until it gets into the system."

"And then?"

"It makes a helpless invalid of the strongest for at least two years."

Norman Greyes Continues:

I have come to the conclusion that in future I shall do well to avoid Janet Stanfield. As the cold, chemical assistant of a master of crime, she interested me. I have even devoted a chapter of my forthcoming book to an analysis of her character. I am beginning to realize now, however, that even the hardest and coldest woman cannot escape from the tendencies of her sex. In all the duels I have previously had with her she had carried herself with cold and deep-seated assurance. There has never been a moment when I have seen the light of any real feeling in her eyes. Last night, however, a different woman dined with me. She was more beautiful than I had ever imagined her, by reason of the slight flush that came and went in her cheeks. Her eyes seemed to have increased in size and to flash with a softer brilliance. We sat at a corner table against the wall at Soto's where the room was, as usual, filled with beautiful women. There was no one who attracted so much attention as my companion. There was no one who deserved it.

"You think I am looking well?" she asked, in reply to some observation of mine.

"Wonderfully," I replied. "Also if I may be allowed to comment upon it, changed. You look as though you had found some new interest in life."

"She laughed a little bitterly. "Where should I seek it?" she asked.

"Perhaps the change is internal," I suggested. "Perhaps your outlook upon life is changing. Perhaps you have made up your mind to put away the false gods."

"I have traveled too far along one road," she answered harshly.

It was at this stage in our conversation that I made up my mind that it were better for me to see this woman no more. Our eyes met, and she suddenly was not hard at all. I seemed to look into her soul, and there were things there which I could not understand. I was thankful that the changing began just then.

"I ask no question," was the cold reply. "I shall know if you are ever faithful. A little present for you, Janet."

He brought his hand from under the pillow and handed me an exquisitely chased gold box, a curio of strange shape and with small enamel figures inside. I exclaimed with delight. He handed the box to me. "I was filled with white powder, on the top of which reposed a tiny powder-puff."

"Be careful not to let any of the powder get near your mouth," he enjoined. "A pinch upon the food or in the glass is sufficient. Take it."

I dropped it into the silk bag I was carrying. I was trying to tell myself that I had killed a man before. "That half-crown cost me one hundred pounds," he said. "Men scour the world for it. You can handle the powder freely. There is no danger until it gets into the system."

"And then?"

"It makes a helpless invalid of the strongest for at least two years."

Norman Greyes Continues:

I have come to the conclusion that in future I shall do well to avoid Janet Stanfield. As the cold, chemical assistant of a master of crime, she interested me. I have even devoted a chapter of my forthcoming book to an analysis of her character. I am beginning to realize now, however, that even the hardest and coldest woman cannot escape from the tendencies of her sex. In all the duels I have previously had with her she had carried herself with cold and deep-seated assurance. There has never been a moment when I have seen the light of any real feeling in her eyes. Last night, however, a different woman dined with me. She was more beautiful than I had ever imagined her, by reason of the slight flush that came and went in her cheeks. Her eyes seem-

"Boxes of Gold," seventh story of this remarkable series, will begin in our next issue.

Showering with Berton Braley

LOVE STAR STATE, DALLAS, TEX.

As soon as you lay your eyes on this state with the wide horizon, There's a sense of space On the roads you trace Far over the rolling plains; And the wind has a zest that's keen—

And a tang that is sweeter, cleaner, Where the long-terrors roam, 'Neath the blue sky's dome O'er an empire of vast domains.

Afar from the crowds which vex us, There's room and enough in Texas For a man to range In the search for change Where the restless with "Things That Are"

A country of huge expanses, A land of million chances, Where the stakes are steep And new cities leap To life like a flaming star

A land of a primal vigor Where the lean, lank men bulge big—

And the girls are lithe And their smiles are blithe With a health and a joy elate; Oh, your blood has a swifter tingle Where the west and the south combine.

And the broad plain smiles For a thousand miles To the bounds of the Lone Star State!

—BERTON-BRALEY.
 (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
 By Olive Barton Roberts

The Twins walked on toward the Cut-Out Lady's house. They passed Milk Shake and Raspberry Pop Pond and presently came to a cracker who shaped like a Noah's Ark.

It was a sign which said, "The Home of the Knick Knacks."

As Nancy and Nick approached, a knick-knack elephant came rushing out and after him came a knick-knack poodle dog.

"Give it back. Give it back or I'll bite you," barked the poodle. "You stole my crumb. Come here and give it back."

When the knick-knack elephant saw the Twins, he rushed behind them. Oh, hide me, please hide me!" he cried.

"Why don't you give him back his crumb, then?" asked Nancy sharply. "Can't," replied the elephant. "It's gone. I ate it."

Nancy felt sorry for the elephant and spread her skirts out in front of him. "Shoot," she said to the knick-knack poodle, when he came rushing up barking like a—like a—barking like a poodle dog. "He hasn't got your crumb. He ate it."

"Tell him I'll trade turns with him," whispered the elephant. "He says he'll trade turns with you," repeated Nancy.

"Well, I don't like to trade turns," said the poodle. "Somebody's always trading turns with me, and I never get a bite. We eat the crumbs in the bottom of the box, the crumbs that break off our ears and tails and paws and stick-out places. And it was my turn to eat the next crumb. I was just about to get it when Mr. Elephant reached down with his long-trunk and gobbled it up."

"Oh, oh!" cried the elephant suddenly. "I've lost my tail. It's fallen off while I was running."

"Get on and find it," said the poodle-dog in a more friendly voice. "And if it's mcmfw shrdlu twypnn. And if I find it I'm going to eat it. Then we'll be even."

"You're welcome, I'm sure," said the elephant. "I don't care, just so I don't lose my trunk." And off they went together.

(To Be Continued.)
 (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

A THOUGHT

Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.—Job 13:15 and 16.

If our faith in God is not the veriest sham, it demands, and will produce, the abandonment sometimes, the subordination always, of external helps and material good.—Alexander McLaren.

Nip it with Dr. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY
 —the family cough syrup

Tom Sims Says

If the U. S. does get into this World Court we hope it doesn't sentence us all to a term of hard labor.

Lighting three cigarettes with one match or drinking bootleg booze are considered bad luck.

Next to hen's teeth about the scariest thing in this country of ours is bankrupt old dealers.

All of these babies being sung to sleep by jazz tunes ought to grow up into swell shimmy dancers.

We like summer better than winter even if you can't cover up in dirty shirt by wearing a vest.

Too many beauty hints, used for preserving a woman's beautiful face are bound to pickle it instead.

Harding caught a blue perch in Florida. Perhaps the poor thing had been in the water too long.

While tripping the light fantastic a Boston girl really did trip and broke her nose.

Kansas farmer inherited $200,000. A little more money and he would have enough to raise chickens.

American frogs are being shipped to China where they will be raised if they do not croak.

Rev. Owen of New York says they go to heaven and the boys will think that is no heaven.

A fool and his money are soon parted, but not soon enough.

About 20,000 underwear makers threaten to strike. But summer is coming so you need not worry.

A Frenchman was kept from entering America because he was crazy, but we think he was showing good sense.

When New Zealand recently shipped 5,320,000 pounds some emus, bought enough fresh butter to last them six months.

Professor says what this country needs is 300,000 eggs. We have them, but they cost more.

We predict the hottest summer on record because they always are.

Perhaps the real reason most musicians need haircuts is they hate to go near barber shop toilets.

Men come home with a lot of fault and find it with the family.

Too many people are talking about other people and too few people are talking to other people.

They say elephants can smell good, but you seldom see one that does.

The radio expert who spills sulphuric acid on his clothes finds everything isn't acid should be.

One thing always considered good taste is strawberry shortcake.

First breath of spring comes either from green onions or from spring-cleaning rubbish burning.

The best filling station ever built is the dining room.

Hope chicken and dressing never get a divorce.

THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE

Entered at the Postoffice, Bismarck, N. D., as Second Class Matter.

BISMARCK TRIBUNE CO. Publishers

Foreign Representatives
G. LOGAN PAYNE COMPANY
CHICAGO
Marquette Bldg.
DETROIT
Kresge Bldg.
PAYNE, BURNS AND SMITH
NEW YORK
Fifth Ave. Bldg.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use or republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION

SUBSCRIPTION RATES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE
Daily by carrier, per year.....$7.20
Daily by mail, per year (in Bismarck)..... 7.20
Daily by mail, per year (in state outside Bismarck)..... 5.00
Daily by mail, outside of North Dakota..... 6.00

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

FARMERS SHOULD RESPOND

There have been so many assaults made upon the federal reserve system from propagandists and politicians, that it will be refreshing to get some first hand facts relative to the functions of that organization from John R. Mitchell, member of the federal reserve board.

Accompanied by editors of leading farm journals, businessmen of the Twin Cities and officials of the Ninth District Reserve Bank, Mr. Mitchell will be present at three conferences in this state so that some of the misunderstandings as to the operation of this system may be cleared up.

It has been a favorite political sport to attack the federal reserve system. Every banking scheme has its imperfections. None responds under certain economic pressure as readily or as beneficially as its sponsors desire, but the fact remains that the federal reserve system has served wonderfully the business needs of the nation.

A system can not go beyond the scope or realm for which it was devised. As the banks come in under the system more generally, it can administer to the financial needs of the nation and particularly to the necessity of the agricultural centers more efficiently.

The main object of the conference in Bismarck, March 27, is to find out how a better return can be secured on the 1923 crop. For that reason it is urgently requested that as many farmers as possible come to Bismarck and meet these experts and learn first hand just how the reserve system can better serve their financial needs.

It is planned to combine this conference with the monthly forum of the Association of Commerce, but any farmer or businessman whether a member of the Association or not is welcome to attend.

There should be a representative gathering to hear these men on a topic of most vital interest to the businessman. Whether he is a farmer or city dweller makes no difference, both are equally interested in the problems Mr. Mitchell and his associates on the federal reserve board are seeking to solve.

TO LIVE LONG

Will you live to a ripe old age? That depends more on your ancestors than on yourself. Such is the conclusion reached by Dr. Raymond Pearl of Johns Hopkins University.

Says Pearl: "The most important thing a person can do toward attaining a ripe old age is to pick the right kind of parents and grandparents."

This expresses a definite idea, though in a way that will seem impossible to most of us. However, there are many who believe that we select our parents before coming into the world. This belief is a branch of the mysticism now epidemic.

Many of us die young or drag along with bad health, as a result of some ancestor's dissipation or the unhealthy economic conditions that surrounded him back yonder in the past.

Dr. Pearl compares us with clocks that are wound up to run varying lengths of time. "Some men have been wound for a full 90-year run, others are only partly wound and stop at 40, 65 or some other point. In human affairs the original winding is hereditary. Sand in the works is environment—disease, or mode of life."

You have often heard it said: "He'll live to a very old age. He comes from long-lived stock."

If you get out the records kept in the family Bible or elsewhere, and figure the average age at which your direct ancestors died for several generations back, you'll have the most probable age of your own death. Observe that the figure will express your average or most probable chance. You may differ from the average—live longer or shorter. That depends largely on the care you are able to take of your body and mind.

How about sudden death—for instance, the man run down by an auto? Dr. Pearl says hereditary is a powerful influence even in such cases of "unavoidable accident." If the victim had inherited keen wits and swift judgment, he probably would have been too alert to be struck by a motorcar.

The age at which we die is determined by a combination of heredity and environment. And environment includes early training and diet, as well as later surroundings and occupation.

Karl Pearson's researches convinced him that there is a scientifically exact relation between the death age of father and son. He decided that the death age is 50 to 75 per cent determined by hereditary factors, and that these are so powerful they cannot be materially modified by environment.

The clear-cut lesson in all this is that the way we live and take care of our health today will, to large extent, fix the number of years our sons, grandsons and later descendants will live. The greatest legacy for the future is sensible living in our generation.

POISON

The campaign against wood alcohol is gaining headway. Five state legislatures in the middle west have passed or are considering legislation making it a murder or manslaughter charge to sell poison booze.

The bootlegger who knowingly peddles wood alcohol under a counterfeit label kills by premeditation.

At this stage of the game, we need more attention to prohibition of poison booze than to prohibition of good whisky. The reckless and feeble-minded must be protected.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that the readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

HARMONY FOR THE PARTY

There will eventually be harmony in the Democratic party of North Dakota—even if we have to fight for it.

This harmony will be brought about by a platform of principles upon which those who stand as Democrats and those who stand for other principles are not Democrats.

As we view these principles at the present time, we find that a tariff that will be used to support the government and not to "protect" any group of men.

The control of the currency should be in the hands of men interested in the welfare of the people and not in the interests of manufacturers or any other class of industry.

The state of North Dakota should dispose of its industries—mill, elevator, bank and the like when you remove the drain of "protection," unjust freight rates and special privileges from the neck of the farmer he will be able to take care of himself without special legislation.

The Democratic party has always stood for low taxes and for economy in government and it will cling to that platform. State Democrat, Fargo.

IDEAS CHANGED

What's the matter with that man Townley, anyway? For years he has been filling us up on the benefits of state owned utilities, but the other day, at Sioux Falls, S. D., he told the farmers they would be full of prunes if they went in for establishing stores, mills, elevators and other businesses. If this keeps on pretty soon we'll be full of disbelief in the reliability of our great salvationists. Beach Advance.

ONLY A SQUARE DEAL

To the west of the Missouri stretches the broad fertile plateau of the Slope country and beyond are the Bad Lands rich in scenic wonders and in history. Fifteen counties containing some of the best land ever kissed by the sun and boasting as its inhabitants the finest lot of people on earth. It is an empire within itself although on the map it is within the boundaries of the great state of North Dakota.

The most of us who dwell here in the Slope are proud of this section of the state are proud of North Dakota. Whenever the good name of the state or its worth is challenged, we uphold and defend it to the last ditch. Whenever a project is launched that will work to the benefit of the state as a whole, we get behind it solidly and put it across. We have always been glad to do this without discriminating against any section or the people living within that section.

But those who live to the east of the turbulent Missouri and particularly the politicians, have not been so generous in their views. From their attitude it would appear that the most of them regard that section of North Dakota situated west of the Missouri as a bleak and desolate wilderness, inhabited by savages, or at the best "poor white trash." About the only time they come down from off their lofty perch and look toward the Slope with an anxious or even kindly eye is during election years when they need the support of the voters to put their favorite candidates across. Then they are willing to promise almost anything in order to gain their end but are always careful to retain the fruits of their labors while they ship the "chucks" out here across the river.

Not only are politicians inclined to take this view but residents of cities in the eastern part of the state also look with disdain upon the Slope country. Wrapping the mantle of exclusiveness about them they labor under the hallucination that North Dakota begins and ends within their corporate limits and pray that their delusion may some day come true. They are perfectly willing that the people of this end of the state shall continue to pay taxes but they demand the right to say how this money shall be spent. They want to take everything and give nothing in return.

The broad expanse of the Slope would make a great state in itself. Secession might solve the existing difficulty.

We would not leave the impression, however, that the people of the Slope wish to separate themselves from North Dakota or will ever resort to the method suggested above but they do want a square deal and the consideration in legislative dealings to which they are justly entitled. They never have felt that they were not but they do demand it for the future. Dickinson Press.

TAKES OFFICE SOON.

Bowbells, N. D., Mar. 20.—Charles J. Kopriva, who recently on order of Judge A. G. Burr in district court at Crook, was reinstated as auditor of Burke county, will start another term of office on April 1, having been re-elected as auditor at the general election last November. The removal case against Kopriva was dismissed by Judge Burr after counsel for the state had declined to proceed with the introduction of testimony.

According to the law, as interpreted by attorneys here, Kopriva will draw full pay for the time he was out of office, and also have the costs of the action defrayed by the petitioners who sought his removal.

INVENTS WIRE STRETCHER.

Washburn, N. D., Mar. 20.—W. F. Doecke, prominent farmer living west of town, has invented a wire stretcher, which he will place on the market in about a month.

Mr. Doecke stated that he had been working on it for the last eight years, first starting out in a crude way, making a stretcher to answer to his own purpose.

The stretcher is different from the others on the market, for the reason that it will stretch any kind of wire fencing.

EVERY ROSE HAS ITS THORNS

THE WINDS OF DEATH

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Copyright, 1922, by E. Phillips Oppenheim
Arrgt. NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Vendetta begins between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal, and SIR NORMAN GREYES, once of Scotland Yard, when Sayers' beautiful housemaid, JANET, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sayers' wife and accomplice. While Sir Norman is living at his country house the police appeal to him to help run to earth a criminal whom they believe to be at the head of a dangerous gang.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY

Janet Continues

She closed the door, and I advanced toward the bedside, only to stop back with a little exclamation. I thought that there must be some mistake. The man who sat up in bed, watching me, seemed at first sight a stranger. His hair, which had been dark, was now of a sandy gray, and he wore a short, stubby moustache of the same color. His cheeks had fallen in; his forehead seemed more prominent; there was an unfamiliar scar on the left side of his face.

"Michael!" I exclaimed incredulously.

"Capital," he replied. "You see a resemblance to Mr. James Stanfield?"

"Not the slightest," I assured him. "The whole thing is wonderful. But what is the matter with you?"

"Nothing," was the impatient rejoinder. "I have had to starve myself to get thin. I took the place on the name of a business acquaintance upon the boat. It was quite a smart piece of work. I am supposed to be suffering from a nervous breakdown."

"You left me alone for a long time," I reminded him.

"I was fighting for my life," he answered grimly. "You don't know the inner workings of the game, so I can't explain it to you."

"As soon as I broke away, they were never on to me again. I brought on the coup of my life in New York, but—things went wrong, Janet. You know what that means."

"You killed some one?" I whispered.

"I had no intention of doing anything of the sort," he answered. "It was Hartley, the banker, himself. He forced me into a fight at close quarters. We exchanged shots. I was wounded. So was he. He was in miserable health, though, and he never recovered. The shock killed him as much as anything. I got away all right, but it means all or nothing for the future."

"If you have enough," I suggested, "why not try the other end of the world?"

"I have thought of everywhere," he answered, "of Indo-China, the South Sea Islands, New Guinea, the far South American states. They are all hopeless. The eyes follow. There is safety only under the shadow of an arm."

"What about our meeting?" I asked. "I am known."

"It is a problem to be solved," he said slowly. "There is risk in it; yet the thought of parting with you, Janet, is like a clutching hand laid upon my heart."

It was the first word of the sort he had ever spoken to me, and again for some reason I shivered.

"What is your need of me now?" I demanded.

"To get rid of Norman Greyes," he replied.

There was a silence during which I felt that he was studying my face,

EVERETT TRUE

BY CONDO

EVERETT, WAS SAM GROGS IN THE OFFICE THIS MORNING WHILE I WAS OUT?

HELLO! I DIDN'T GET THE LAST OF WHAT YOU SAID!

OH, YES—YES, NOW I CAN HEAR YOU VERY PLAINLY! GO AHEAD.

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

NEA SERVICE

ed to have increased in size and to flash with a softer brilliance. We sat at a corner table against the wall at Soto's where the room was, as usual, filled with beautiful women. There was no one who attracted so much attention as my companion. There was no one who deserved it. "You think I am looking well?" she asked, in reply to some observation of mine.

"Wonderfully," I replied. "Also I am allowed to comment upon it, changed. You look as though you had found some new interest in life."

"She laughed a little bitterly. "Where should I seek it?" she asked.

"Perhaps the change is internal," I suggested. "Perhaps your outlook upon life is changing. Perhaps you have made up your mind to put away the false gods."

"I have traveled too far along one road," she answered hardly.

It was at this point in our conversation that I made up my mind that it were better for me to see this woman no more. Our eyes met, and she suddenly was not hard at all. I seemed to look into her soul, and there were things there which I could not understand. I was thankful that the dancing began just then. It helped us over a curious gulf of silence. Janet danced with little knowledge of the steps, but with a wonderful sense of rhythm. I was ashamed of the pleasure I gave me to realize, as we moved away to the music, that this woman of steel had a very soft and human body.

Janet was certainly in a strange and nervous state that evening. We danced for some time without resting. Then she suddenly turned back to the table. I had paused for a moment to speak to some acquaintances. When I rejoined her, she was pale, and the hand which was holding her little gold powder-box was shaking.

"Has anything happened?" I asked her, a little concerned. "Are you not feeling well? Perhaps the dancing."

"I loved it," she interrupted. "I am quite well."

Yet she sat there, tense and speechless. I made up my mind to finish my coffee and go. I had raised the can to my lips, even, when she suddenly swayed across the table, knocking my arm with her elbow. My coffee was spilled, and the tablecloth was ruined. Janet began to laugh. For a moment she seemed to have a fit of hysterical merriment. Then, as she watched the cloth being changed she became herself again. She had the air of one who had not a crisis and conquered it.

"I am sorry for my clumsiness," she said penitently. "Let us dance again while they rearrange the table."

This time her feet moved less nimbly to the music. "She seemed heavier in my arms."

"Who gave you that beautiful gold powder-box?" I inquired, more for the sake of making conversation than from any actual curiosity.

"Satan," she acknowledged. "I have made up my mind, however, to send it back."

"Boxes of Gold," seventh story of the remarkable series, will begin in our next issue.

As soon as you lay your eyes on this state with the wide horizon, there's a sense of space. On the roads you trace far over a rolling plain; and the wind has a zest that's keen.

And a tang that is sweeter, cleaner, where the long-horns roam. Neath the blue sky's dome o'er an empire of vast domains.

Afar from the crowds which vex us, there's room and enough in Texas for a man to range. In the search for change when he's restless with "Things That Are."

A country of huge expanses, a land of million chances, where the stars are steep and new cities leap to life like a flaming star.

A land of a primal vigor where the lean, lank men bulge bigger. And the girls are lithe and their smiles are blithe with a health and a joy alert. Oh, your blood has a swifter tingle where the west and the south combine.

And the broad plain smiles for a thousand miles to the bounds of the Lone Star State! —BERTON BRALEY (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts

The Twins walked on toward the Cut-Out Lady's house. They passed Milk Shake and Raspberry Pop Pond and presently came to a cracker box shaped like a Noah's Ark.

On it was a sign which said, "The Home of the Knick Knacks." As Nancy and Nick approached, a knick-knack elephant came rushing out and after him came a knick-knack poodle dog.

"Give it back. Give it back or I'll bite you," barked the poodle. "You stole my crumb. Come here and give it back."

When the knick-knack elephant said the Twins he rushed behind them. Oh, hide me, please hide me!" he cried.

"Why don't you give him back his crumb, then?" asked Nancy sharply. "Can't," replied the elephant. "It's gone. I ate it."

Nancy felt sorry for the elephant and spread her skirts out in front of him. "Shoo!" she said to the knick-knack poodle, when he came rushing up barking like a—like a—barking like a poodle dog. "He hasn't got your crumb. He ate it."

"Tell him I'll trade turns with him," whispered the elephant. "He says he'll trade turns with you," repeated Nancy.

"Well, I don't like to trade turns," said the poodle. "Somebody's always trading turns with me, and I never get a bite. We eat the crumbs in the bottom of the box, the crumbs that break off our ears and tails and paws and stick-out places. And it was my turn to eat the next crumb. I was just about to get it when Mr. Elephant reached down with his long trunk and gobbled it up."

"Oh, oh!" cried the elephant suddenly. "I've lost my tail. It's fallen off while I was running."

"I'll go and find it," said the poodle-dog in a more friendly voice. "And if I find it I'm going to eat it. Then we'll be even."

"You're welcome, I'm sure," said the elephant. "I don't care, just so I don't lose my trunk." And off they went together.

(To Be Continued.)

(Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

Tribune Want Ads Bring Results

Tom Sims Says

If the U. S. does get into this World Court we hope it doesn't sentence us all to a term of hard labor.

Lighting three cigars with one match or drinking bootleg booze are considered

Social and Personal

Presbyterian Ladies Give Pot Luck Supper

A pot luck supper will be given in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock with the following ladies as hostesses:

Misses: James Nebergall, J. P. French, Elva Earl Whitson, W. P. Lomas, P. R. Smyth, A. M. Brandt, W. A. McDonald, S. E. Bergerson, E. Heath, F. L. Schuman, G. R. Thompson and Miss H. Beach.

All members are invited to come bring their friends and to bring something for supper, which will be served cafeteria style. The committee will furnish rolls, coffee, and cream.

Miss Maher Gives Party for Friends

Miss Marguerite Maher of 622 Third street, was hostess Saturday evening to fourteen of her friends from the Business college and Woolworth store. The evening was delightfully spent in music, dancing and games. Decorations were pleasantly carried out in St. Patrick colors of green and white, streamers and green clover leaves producing an artistic effect. At midnight a course luncheon was served.

FANCY DRESS FOR ROTARIANS
Bismarck's Rotary delegation will wear blue frocks with yellow lettering bearing the word "Bismarck" on the front and the Rotary symbol, carry canes to which are attached Bismarck pennants, and carry a large flag in the parade which is an important feature of the ninth annual convention at St. Paul.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB MEETS.
The Fortnightly club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. L. Nussle to tomorrow afternoon when the program will be devoted to juvenile literature. Mrs. A. M. Brandt will present the subject of "Louisiana May Alcott and Frances Hodgson Burnett." Mrs. C. L. Young will read a paper on James Whitcomb Riley and James W. Foley while the news of the fortnight will be reviewed by Mrs. A. M. Christianson.

AMONG CITY VISITORS.
Edgar Hanson and G. V. Hansen of Oakes, L. H. Ransom of Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson of Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Monroe of Baldwin, James Shakson of Max, James H. Toplin of Wilton, Donald Majors of Garrison, Paul Rescoe of Garrison, Emil Gamelgard and Alfred Gamelgard of Laverne, were among the city visitors here today.

UNITE IN MARRIAGE
The marriage of Miss Ida A. Fosberg and James H. Taplin, both of Wilton, were united in marriage at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the rectory of the Baptist church. Miss Lena Fosberg and Alfred Fosberg acted as witnesses. The young couple expect to make their home in Wilton.

STOP OVER ON WAY TO ST. PAUL.
Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coolen of Garrison, of Garrison, who stopped over in Bismarck last night left this morning for St. Paul, Minn., where they will visit with relatives. They may make their home in that city.

HERE ATTENDING COURT.
R. A. Stone, former assistant attorney general of Minnesota; O. M. Nelson, vice president of First National bank of St. Paul and former Gov. John Burke of Fargo, are in Bismarck on federal court business.

GUEST AT HOME OF SON.
Mrs. C. A. Brasie of Litchfield, Minn., who has been the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Brasie for some time past left this morning for Jamestown to visit with her sister.

TRINITY LUTHERAN LADIES AID.
The ladies of Trinity English Lutheran church holds its monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon. Refreshments served by members and friends please meet up in full force.

HERE FOR FUNERAL.
Frank DeLaney of Terry, Mont., brother of Mrs. J. W. Murphy, and Mr. Kenny of Grand Forks, an uncle of Mrs. Murphy was here to attend the funeral of Miss Mary Murphy.

J. L. BELL ILL.
J. L. Bell of the First National bank was unable to accompany the Rotary delegation on their trip to St. Paul, Minn., to attend the ninth annual convention of the Rotary club there because of illness.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY.
The Young Peoples society of the Trinity Lutheran church will give their program at the church Thursday.

Anti-Flirt Club in Capitol

Because bold, bad men in the nation's Capitol have failed to read their daily etiquette column, and hence overlooked the formality of an introduction, Washington girls have organized to protect themselves from unwelcome advances. Here are some charter members of the Anti-Flirt Club. Inset above Alice Reighly, president.

day night instead of Wednesday as announced in church.

RETURNS FROM EAST.
Mrs. G. A. Rawlings has returned from a visit of three weeks in New York City, and Washington, D. C. Enroute she stopped for a short time in Chicago, Ill.

LUTHERAN LADIES AID.
The Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet tomorrow afternoon in the church parlors. Friends and members are cordially invited to attend.

STOPPING AT GRAND PACIFIC.
Mrs. R. E. Trousdale and son, Robert, are stopping at the Grand Pacific hotel, while spending the week in Bismarck visiting and shopping.

APPEAR IN RECITAL.
The piano pupils of Mrs. Genevieve Menard Hughes will appear in recital at the high school auditorium tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock.

BAPTIST LADIES AID.
The Baptist Ladies Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Otto Dirlam. A good attendance is desired.

PLAN FOR EASTER BALL.
The Catholic Daughters of America are making preparations for their Easter ball to be held at Patterson hall, April 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Brazera have moved into the property at 410 Third street which will be their home.

VISITING HUSBAND.
Mrs. John O'Leary of Foxholm, is in town visiting her husband, who is a member of the jury.

HERE ON BUSINESS.
Senator Frank Ployhar of Valley City is in Bismarck on business.

Mrs. Cecil Proctor and brother, George MacTighe of Wilton arrived in Bismarck yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. G. Strandemo of Baldwin, were city visitors here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berg of Wilton, were city visitors here today.

P. S. Berg of Dickinson, was a business caller here today.

John Parkinson is confined to his home by illness.

Dance at Patterson Hall
Wednesday and Saturday evenings

NOTICE
The Knights of Pythias will have their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the K. of P. Hall.

ORDER YOUR RECORDS
By Mail—We Pay the Postage.
HOSKINS-MEYER

DIAMOND MOUNTINGS.
Iridio-platinum, white, and green gold in exceptional designs, distinctive and original—the better kind.
Wedding rings to match all diamond mountings.

F. A. KNOWLES
Jeweler. Bismarck.
DIAMONDS our specialty.
We mount your diamonds while you wait.

the funeral as well as the Sodality of which Mary was a devoted member. The Knights of Columbus, also attended in a body.
Father Slag, to whom the deceased was so well known, paid a beautiful tribute to her memory, dwelling particularly on her virtues of modesty and humility.
The teachers and students extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives.

Succumbs to Peculiar Disease

Funeral services for G. A. Easton of Kintyre, who passed away at a local hospital Sunday will be held in Kintyre. Mr. Easton who was a well known farmer of the Kintyre region suffered with a peculiar disease known as Parkinson's disease. He was only ill for several weeks although not in the most robust health for a time previous. He is survived by a wife and a son and other relatives.

"SKIN DEEP" IS THRILLER

Ince Feature Picture Being Shown at Eltinge

Bud Doyle crawled out of bed to the weakness of a long illness had left him faint and trembling.

On his unsteady journey across the room his hand rested for a moment on the bureau. His fingers touched something cold and metallic. It was a mirror. By instinct his fingers closed upon it. Ordinarily Bud was not very much interested in mirrors. The police had always shown considerable more interest in his face than he had ever felt himself but as he touched the mirror there did come to his mind a faint curiosity to know just what happens to a face when you fall out of an aeroplane upon it.

He took one look out of the window, then he lifted the mirror to the light. What he saw almost stopped the blood in his veins. The face that he saw in the mirror was not his face.

This, with the extraordinary event which followed, is one of the thrilling and dramatic situations in Thomas H. Ince's super-photoplay, which will be the feature picture attraction at the Eltinge theater for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Minnie, piano accordion artist also entertains at the Eltinge for the same three days.

NOTICE A. O. U. W.
The regular meeting will be held at the A. O. U. W. Hall tonight.

For First Class Dry Cleaning. Call Capital Laundry Co. Phone 684.

LETTER FROM LESLIE HAMILTON TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

MY DEAR BOY:

As you know that I was going to do, I went to see your friend, Miss Priscilla Bradford, on Friday afternoon and took her to the club to tea with your cousin, Mary Alden—she calls you "Cousin John Alden."

I think my young sister, Alice, called the turn when she said—"Les, they are dumb-bells."

The first word your Priscilla Bradford said to me was, "You know I have played and quarreled and made up with your fiancé ever since we were young children. I could tell you much about him that you do not know."

I answered, "I expect that is so. You see, he never spoke to me very much about his boyhood friends. With the exception of Sidney Carter I don't remember that he ever mentioned one of them, either man or woman, to me. We had so short a time together that I guess we did what all lovers do—used all of it talking of ourselves."

Sometimes, lover mine, I think perhaps that is the sweetest part of loving—this saying when did you first know that you loved me and "isn't it more beautiful than we could possibly have dreamed" and "think of it, sweetheart, this is the way it will be forever and all those other exclamations that go to make up the long, long conversations of lovers."

"Have you arranged for all your bridesmaids," Priscilla asked (that name just suits her). I know by the way she asked it that she thought I ought to ask her to be one, but I won't, John, I'm only going to have pretty girls to be my bridesmaids and so I answered—"Oh, yes, with the exception of my young sister here, they are all classmates at school."

Her face fell at this, and Mary Alden spoke up—"No bridesmaids gets much consideration at his own wedding, does he? One might think that sometimes he might want some one of his relatives in the wedding party."

"Not in America," I answered. "You see, over here it is one of the times when the girl has the center of the stage and no one notices the bridegroom except to sense the fact that he is in the conventional black."

Just then, Alice spied Karl Whitney coming in from the golf links, and she called him over. Karl was only too glad to come, for although I haven't said very much to you about him, "he has played and quarreled and made up with me since we were children" and everybody in this town expected us to marry. As you said to me about Priscilla Bradford, I think, in fact I know, that Karl would have been glad to have had me for his wife.

Mary Alden was tactless enough to tell Miss Bradford "this is the man we all thought Miss Hamilton would marry."

Karl, bless his heart, loyal to me to the last, answered, "This man had no such impression as that, Miss Alden, although he would have been happy to have been principal in the coming drama instead of standing on the side lines and giving a wordless blessing."

I could have hugged him! Yes, John, I really could. I think that's about all of interest that happened. Those two girls never did say a word unless I started the conversation. I knew they were criticizing me from the top of my married hair to the new buckle shoes on my feet, which, by the way, have high French heels and contrasted greatly with their own "le oxford."

Darling, I'm so glad we are not going to live in your old home town. I never could be friends with your Priscilla Bradford if I could live to be a thousand years old.

You haven't said one word to me about whether you ever told another girl you loved her. Surely you did not tell that Bradford girl that, did you? Don't think it is too trivial a question to answer, John, for I could not bear it if I thought you had made love to some other girl in just the dear way that you have made love to me.

Not that I am jealous! Oh no! I never could be jealous; that is an acknowledgment of inferiority and I thank my stars that I have no inferiority complex. Dear boy, I am rambling along in this letter just for the mere sake of talking to you. It some way brings me almost within your dear arms. I let my imagination revel a little and now I'm sitting on the arm of your chair, my cheek tight against yours, and instead of writing it, I am saying it—"Jack, I love you and I am just as impatient as you for that day when you and I will go away together—just you and me."

Where are we going on our wed-

DYE OLD DRESS OR DRAPERY IN DIAMOND DYES

Buy "Diamond Dyes" and follow the simple directions in every package. Don't wonder whether you can dye or tint successfully, because perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Wear, faded dresses, skirts, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything bearing life new again. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.

CLASSMATES ACT AS PALLBEARERS

Friday morning a shadow of gloom was cast over St. Mary's school, when the death of Mary Murphy was announced. She had been ill only a few days, so her death came as a shock for some of the students were aware of the fact that her life was in danger.

Mary had been at St. Mary's for the past five and a half years, having entered the fifth grade after coming here with her parents from Raleigh. During these years she has endeared herself among teachers and pupils. Everyone who came to know her learned to appreciate the sterling worth and nobility of her character. The teachers and students all realize that she left us as a shining example will ever remain as an inspiration. All feel that she has not left us forever, but has merely gone on before to prepare the way for her friends.

Her classmates, Carl Maassen, Charles McCarty, Richard Horner, William Greyschick, Clement Kelly, Clemens Boespflug, were pall bearers, and her intimate friends, Rollett Lockwood, Frances Wynkoop, Florence Wynkoop, Ariene Fisher, Aeneas Keogh and Anna Braun, were honorary pall bearers. The entire student body attended.

Sew And Save

Here are Some Examples of Economy in Home Sewing:
We are well prepared for
Springtime Dressmaking

THE new fabrics are aglow with oriental brilliancy. Styles were never so beautiful as they are today, and the new season's fabrics have an oriental brilliancy and originality absolutely in keeping with Spring itself.

44 child can lay out a PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERN with the help of the Pattern Cutting and Construction Guides

|  |  |   |
|--|--|---|
| 1566 (Left)—Size 36 required:4 yds. 40 in. Plain Voile @ 75 ..... $3.001 1/2 yds. Lace @ 35 ..... .334 yds. Lace @ 75 ..... .301 yd. Lining ..... .501 Dress Pattern ..... .35Findings ..... .50Will cost you complete ..... $4.04 | 1568 (Right)—Size 36 required:3 1/2 yds. Plain Suiting @ 75 ..... $2.911 bolt Bias Trimming ..... .181 Dress Pattern ..... .35Findings ..... .50Will cost you complete ..... $3.94 | 1577 (Right)—Size 36 required:5 yds. Tissue Ging-ham @ 50 ..... $2.503 yds. 45 in. Organ-die @ 95c ..... .721 yd. Dress Lining ..... .501 Dress Pattern ..... .35Findings ..... .50Will cost you complete ..... $5.02 |
|--|--|---|

1577 (Above)—Size 36 required:
4 yds. 40 in. Plain Voile @ 75 ..... $3.00
1 1/2 yds. Lace @ 35 ..... .33
4 yds. Lace @ 75 ..... .30
1 yd. Lining ..... .50
1 Dress Pattern ..... .35
Findings ..... .50
Will cost you complete ..... $7.88

1566 (Right)—Size 36 required:
4 yds. 40 in. Plain Voile @ 75 ..... $3.00
1 1/2 yds. Lace @ 35 ..... .33
4 yds. Lace @ 75 ..... .30
1 yd. Lining ..... .50
1 Dress Pattern ..... .35
Findings ..... .50
Will cost you complete ..... $4.04

1577 (Above)—Size 36 required:
4 yds. 40 in. Plain Voile @ 75 ..... $3.00
1 1/2 yds. Lace @ 35 ..... .33
4 yds. Lace @ 75 ..... .30
1 yd. Lining ..... .50
1 Dress Pattern ..... .35
Findings ..... .50
Will cost you complete ..... $7.88

5000 CASH PRIZES GIVEN AWAY
in our Home Sewing Contest for Girls
A. W. LUCAS CO.
Bismarck's Busy Shopping Center

dining trip, John? I hadn't thought of that before, because he is far or near, east or west, north or south, I care not if you are with Your own, LESLIE.

Walter G. Black of Mandan, who will become state engineer on April 1 by appointment of Governor Nesces, has filed his bond and oath of office.

Your Health is at Stake if You Suffer from Constipation!

Every man, woman and child who has constipation or constipation symptoms should have no stone unturned to get instant relief! Keep away from the dangers of pills and cathartics, which are almost as much to be dreaded as constipation itself. Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is ALKALINE—and it is Kellogg's Bran that will give permanent relief if eaten regularly.

Most cases of Bright's and diabetes can be traced to constipation; in its milder form constipation is responsible for sick headache, nausea, pimples, sour breath, etc. And, we say right here—and guarantee what we say—that Kellogg's Bran, if eaten regularly, will give you permanent relief.

food as well as wonderful as a natural means of relieving constipation. Kellogg's Bran contains important mineral salts; it contains elements that are necessary in making bone, tissue and blood—yet, it acts as a sweeper, cleanser and purifier.

Eat Kellogg's Bran as a cereal. You'll enjoy its nut-like flavor. Or, sprinkle it on or mix it with hot or cold cereals. Many like it cooked with hot cereals. Two tablespoonfuls of Bran should be added in each instance. You have missed much not to have eaten Kellogg's Bran made into muffins, raisin bread or many other bakery batches. Recipes on every package. Prominent hotels, restaurants and clubs serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

Allies

Two of the best things that a man can have are a life insurance policy and a savings account. They are his allies in helping him to cultivate one of the finest qualities of citizenship—thrift.

The two work together admirably. The life insurance policy looks forward to a more or less remote future; the savings account is a provision for more immediate emergencies. For the man of moderate income the savings account can be made the handmaid of the life insurance policy since by setting aside a portion of his income each week into a savings account, funds are provided for meeting the insurance premium when it falls due.

Both are a provision for a host of eventualities that may arise any day. The man who is wise will be foresighted enough to possess himself of both for they are the agencies through which he can create an estate for himself.

The First National Bank

The Pioneer Bank

HERE ARE THE MCKENZIE HOTEL FIVE

They play for the dances at Patterson's Hall every Wednesday and Saturday nights. Rates for in city $5 an Hour, outside of city same Rate Plus railroad fare and Hotel expense.

Perfect Rinsing

Insures Longer Wear.
It is almost impossible for the housewife to rinse every particle of soap from her wash. All clothes laundered here are rinsed in many changes of soft pure water from our own artesian well, then the clothes are dried by a delicate machine that DRAWS the moisture out. Thus there is no chance of injuring the fabric or tearing off buttons as done by the old winger method. We save you money, energy, and your clothes.

LET US SHOW YOU.
Capital Laundry Co.
Laundriers and Dry Cleaners.
Phone 684

SOFTENS HARD WATER
RUB-NO-MORE WASHING POWDER
Just a little makes dish washing easy! Cleanses, purifies, sterilizes and saves soap!
SAVE THE TRADEMARKS

SPORTS

BOXING BACK IN CHICAGO

Joe Lynch, Bantamweight Champion, Loses in Bout

Chicago, Mar. 20.—Boxing came back to Chicago with a bang last night when the first program offered publicly since the Terry McGovern-Joe Gans fiasco nearly two decades ago. Joe Burman of Chicago won a newspaper decision over Joe Lynch of New York, the bantamweight champion of the world, in ten rounds.

In last night's bout Lynch was at times extremely lethargic. He took the first two rounds, a right hand punch and a flip on the floor spilling Burman momentarily within the first two minutes. From the first round on Lynch was very deliberate and Burman piled up a lead.

SIKI SEEKS NEW MATCH

London, Mar. 20.—Battling Siki, who was defeated by Mike McTigue in Dublin last Saturday night, has challenged McTigue to another bout, according to Sporting Life. The boxer mentioned by Siki in his latest challenge is five hundred pounds a side, winner to take it all. McTigue expressed a willingness to accept Siki's challenge, if the promoter of the fight puts up a purse in accordance with McTigue's expectations, which he declares are reasonable.

RADGERS MAKES HIT IN MINOT JOHNSON BOUT

Stanley Radgers, Bismarck wrestler, won high praise for his victory over Ole Johnson in Minot Friday night. The Minot Daily News said in part:

"Radgers won in a clean cut and decisive manner but not until he had tried nearly hold in his repertoire tried nearly every hold of the most famous and finally specialized upon a wicked short arm scissors that eventually wore down the rugged Johnson. The Bismarck man took the first fall after a hour and 14 minutes of wrestling."

Following the intermission the crowd settled back for another strenuous exhibition as the men stepped on the mat again but after 3 minutes of fast work Radgers clamped another short arm scissors on Johnson's sore arm and pinned the Minot man's shoulders to the mat.

"Although defeated, Johnson didn't lose any friends. The Minot man put up a whole lot of a battle against the speedy Radgers and although he was behind the Bismarck man only three or four times during the entire match, he frequently had Radgers in a bad way by the use of a vicious toe hold, which he applied at times with monotonous regularity and which was broken only by sheer strength on the part of the Bismarck man."

Athletics to Play Milwaukee

Montgomery, Ala., Mar. 20.—The Philadelphia Athletics will play the Milwaukee Brewers this afternoon in the first of a three game series despite the cold weather, according to announcement made today by Manager Connie Mack.

LIKE PIT-AND-TAKE

London, Mar. 20.—Five Chinese were arrested and fined for operating gambling resorts. They said the Chinese game of Pak-a-Pan was attracting many Londoners. The only thing they tell about the game is that sometimes odds of 1000 to one are offered.

LEAVE IT TO BRIDGET

Woking, England, March 20.—Every night in years Bridget Thean, housemaid, had looked under the bed for an intruder. Then she looked and saw one. She brushed him by the collar and made him give back her wrist watch which he'd purloined.

PREVENT FLU AND GRIPPE

For a few cents you can ward off Flu and Grippe by promptly checking your coughs and colds with Foley's Honey and Tar. Also gives quick relief from coughs resting from Flu, Grippe, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Bronchitis. Forty-eight years of satisfaction to users has made Foley's Honey and Tar the World's largest selling cough medicine. Contains no opiates—ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's.

BEULAH COAL now $4.75 per ton delivered. The Wachter Transfer Co. Phone 62.

Ingrown Toe Nail Turns Out Itself

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outergo" upon the skin surrounding the ingrown nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin, underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outergo" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

Americans Star in Oxford Crew

Two American students at Oxford will be pillars of strength in the Oxford eight when the historic race with Cambridge takes place. Above is shown the Oxford boat on a trial spin at Henley. The two Americans are W. F. Mellen, stroking the crew, and R. K. Kane, No. 4. Inset shows, left to right, Kane and Mellen.

O. F. M'GRAY WINS PRIZE IN CONTEST

Garrison Dealer Takes State Honors for Selling Trucks

Everybody at the branch house of the International Harvester Company of America, 23 Main Street, Bismarck, N. D., headquarters in this territory for McCormick-Deering farm machines and implements, has been keyed up to a high pitch the past few weeks on account of the $1000 Red Baby dealer state prize contest the company has been conducting.

"Hundreds of dealers in this district," said P. H. Fields, branch manager, "have been up and going the past year trying their best to win the prize for this state. It was a neck-and-neck race with a number of hustling dealers out in front."

"Mr. O. F. McGray of Garrison, N. D., proved to be the winner, and a real winner he is too," Mr. Fields went on to say. "Mr. McGray has the honor therefore, of being not only the proud recipient of the sizable prize of $1000 but also the leading McCormick-Deering dealer (so far as increased business percentage goes) in this important agricultural state."

The main office of the harvester company at Chicago has also been making a great "how-do-you-do" about the Red Baby contest, and has asked Mr. McGray to write a special letter telling how it feels to be a winner. This letter is to be used in the special championship issue of the company's magazine, The Harvester World. The letter is full of the inspiration and business optimism that naturally radiates from a business leader. It has the spirit that spells success. Mr. Fields very kindly supplied us with an advance proof from The Harvester World which contains Mr. McGray's letter. It is as follows:

"It is indeed, with pleasure that I acknowledge receipt of your recent letter enclosing the $1,000 Championship Contest check. Please accept my thanks."

"My receiving the check, while it was more or less of a surprise, is the result of a definite and determined sales program, including consistent and continuous country canvassing. My Red Baby was my method of trying the message to Garrison. I believed that the prospects were in my territory, and that they were ready and willing to buy if a way could be devised to call on them."

"The Harvester company, through its efficient management, solved the problem by making it possible for each and every dealer to become the owner of a Red Baby, thereby increasing the dealer's sales possibilities a great many times."

"Increased volume is brought about only through hard work and while my name appears on the check, I want you to know that my son Frank, and our right-hand man, Art Benschoff, are more responsible than I in making the sale increase. They were on the roads early and late with the Red Baby, visiting every possible prospect, as well as delivering machines, twine, and repairs. Sales are appreciated, but it's the service you give that counts."

"The $1000 check looks good, is appreciated, and comes in handy, yet the returns to the business in the way of profits for the year 1922, which are the direct results of a Red Baby country campaign, are very satisfactory."

"When all of your dealers see the light, your Red Baby factory will be working night and day."

Selling Plan

The Red Baby or projected selling plan, as it has been happily phrased, was inaugurated by the Harvester company early in 1922. The main spring of the Red Baby campaign, to be sure, is the Red Baby itself. The Red Baby is an International Model S 2000-lb. speed chassis with express body mounted on it all painted a flaming red. I.H.C. Sales and Service are printed on the truck in prominent letters to indicate its purpose. Along with the announcement of the Red Baby campaign itself the Harvester company told of thirty-one $1000 district prizes to be offered to dealers who operated Red Babies, one for the largest percentage of increase in business in each district.

"We want our dealers," said the prize announcement sent out a year ago by the Harvester company, "to make a great deal more money this year than they did last. We know it can be done—if the effort is put forth. An extra hour in the country; another trip to the customer who fails to buy on the first round; a cheerful 'Howdy' to every farmer friend and a straight-forward bid for his business; an aggressive 'show them' sales policy in the store and on the farm—in these efforts will every McCormick-Deering dealer find his salvation."

On Band Wagon
Thousands of McCormick-Deering

FLORIDA'S RACQUET CHAMPION

Miss Anna Holland, seen here in action at Daytona Beach, Fla., is the racquet champion of that state and she hereby challenges the whole world.

dealers got on the band wagon, so to speak, and became owners of Red Babies. With the new speed vehicle, they realized they could give the farmer a new kind of at-the-farm service. They knew, also, that more business could be had if they went after it. Hence, with a new type of selling plan and a new type of vehicle to take them direct to the farmer's place of business, they went after business in a new spirit. With the $1000 prizes and the honor of being leaders in their respective territories as further incentives, lively competitions among the dealers developed in every district. Every man of them keyed himself up to the new Red Baby method of intensive selling effort.

It was a merry scrap and every prize winner knows that he had to go the limit to win the award. The campaign has been a marked success, so much so that a new and similar campaign is planned for the 1923 season.

Now, what has it meant to McCormick-Deering dealers to conduct their business in the new Red Baby way? How has it affected their relations with the farmer?

How to Boost Business

The Red Baby to dealers everywhere has been a symbol of rejuvenated selling effort. It has been an important means by which they have been able to meet the new, more cautious, and in many ways the healthier buying spirit with determination and confidence. The Red Baby has repeatedly proved that even in times of adversity the farmer will buy if he is thoroughly convinced that the purchase is necessary. The "arm after all is nothing more than a food factory and as a factory head the careful farmer will keep a close eye on production figures. Anything that will increase these figures will naturally have a special appeal. With the Red Baby the dealers have been able to make frequent trips to the country and right at his own place of business they have often convinced the farmer of the need of new equipment. Everywhere in the country within a radius of thirty or even forty miles speeds this flaming business getter. Farmers everywhere in a dealer's territory recognize the Red Baby as a distinctive farmers' service installation—a traveling advertisement.

The Red Baby, in truth, has helped thousands of McCormick-Deering dealers to be better business men and better salesmen. The Red Baby has brought them closer to the farmer. It has enabled them to go out to the farm often and to help and educate the farmer in regard to the machines they sell him—be in the truest sense the farmer's consulting engineers.

WILL OPERATE ON U. S. SENATOR

Rochester, Minn., Mar. 20.—Suffering from a stomach ailment, U. S. Senator Samuel Nicholson of Colorado, probably will undergo an operation today at the Mayo clinic.

Announcement

I desire to announce my candidacy for the office of Police Magistrate, subject to the will of the voters in the election on April 3. My motto is "A Square Deal to All." Will appreciate your support.

W. S. Casselman.

For First Class Dry Cleaning. Call Capital Laundry Co. Phone 684.

BEULAH COAL now $4.75 per ton delivered. The Wachter Transfer Co. Phone 62.

DIZZY SPELLS?

If You Have Heat Flashes or Smothering Spells, You Should Not Overlook One Word of This.

Winona, Minn.—"At middle life I was terribly distressed with heat flashes and smothering spells. I would become quite dizzy at times, too. I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and felt the benefit right away, so I kept on taking it until I was safely thru that critical period. It was really remarkable how quickly Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription relieved me of all my distress and I came thru middle life in excellent health. I praise this good medicine at every opportunity."—Mrs. Rose Buse, 415 High Forest St.

Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice or send 10c for trial pkg. of tablets.

It Pays to Swim With the Current

This is about two spark plugs. At the moment they are lying on the sales manager's desk in the establishment of a large middle-western hardware jobber.

One spark plug bear a name known wherever automobiles are used; the other a name seldom heard.

Both, says the sales manager, are good plugs. On the score of quality they run neck and neck.

"But," he adds, "we are discontinuing this line"—and he holds up the plug of unfamiliar name. "Yes, and our discount on it is larger, too."

"What's wrong with it? Not a thing. It's a good plug—mighty good plug, but—no one knows about it. It isn't advertised—the other one is. The demand is for the advertised make. And we've learned it pays to swim with the current, not against it."

More and more jobbers in every line of business are learning every day that it pays to swim with the current of popular demand.

"Our job," said one jobber, "is to supply markets, not create them. Let the manufacturer make a market for his goods, and we will handle it."

Said another—"Our salesman carry a catalog with thousands of items in it. They haven't the time to push unadvertised goods. Their work is principally taking orders."

If you go among these wholesalers today to introduce a new product in competition with merchandise nationally advertised, unless the article is exceptional, you will be met everywhere by the injunction: "First go out and get a reputation for your goods through advertising."

The wholesaler knows by actual contact with dealers how they value speed of turn-over, goods which move with a minimum of effort, goods people know about and ask for.

Published by the Bismarck Tribune, in co-operation with The American Association of Advertising Agencies

Smoke

INVEST YOUR CIGAR MONEY in smoke-content. It takes just one Cinco to win you over. Then you'll find out why nearly a quarter of a billion are smoked annually. 2 for 15c, everywhere.

CINCO

SPORTS

BOXING BACK IN CHICAGO

Joe Lynch, Bantamweight Champion, Loses in Bout

Chicago, Mar. 20.—Boxing came back to Chicago with a bang last night when the first program offered publicly since the Terry McGovern-Joe Gans biasco nearly two decades ago. Joe Burman of Chicago won a newspaper decision over Joe Lynch of New York, the bantamweight champion of the world, in ten rounds.

In last night's bout Lynch was at times extremely lethargic. He took the first two rounds, a right hand punch and a flip on the floor spilling Burman momentarily within the first two minutes. From the first round on Lynch was very deliberate and Burman piled up a lead.

SIKI SEEKS NEW MATCH

London, Mar. 20.—Batting Siki, who was defeated by Mike McTigue in Dublin last Saturday night, has challenged McTigue to another bout, according to Sporting Life. The wager mentioned by Siki in his latest challenge is five hundred pounds a side, winner to take it all. McTigue expressed a willingness to accept Siki's challenge, if the promoter of the fight puts up a purse in accordance with McTigue's expectations, which he declares are reasonable.

RADGERS MAKES HIT IN MINOT JOHNSON BOUT

Stanley Radgers, Bismarck wrestler, won high praise for his victory over Ole Johnson in Minot Friday night. The Minot Daily News said in part:

"Radgers won in a clean cut and decisive manner but not until he had tried nearly hold in his repertoire and finally specialized upon a wicked short arm scissors that eventually wore down the rugged Johnson. The Bismarck man took the first fall after 1 hour and 14 minutes of wrestling."

"Following the intermission the crowd settled back for another strenuous exhibition as the men stepped on the mat again but after 3 minutes of fast work Radgers clamped another short arm scissors on Johnson's sore arm and pinned the Minot man's shoulders to the mat."

"Although defeated, Johnson didn't lose any friends. The Minot man put up a whale of a battle against the speedy Radgers and although he was behind the Bismarck man only three or four times during the entire match, he frequently had Radgers in a bad way by the use of a vicious toe hold which he applied at times with monotonous regularity and which was broken only by sheer strength on the part of the Bismarck man."

Athletics to Play Milwaukee

Montgomery, Ala., Mar. 20.—The Philadelphia Athletics will play the Milwaukee Brewers this afternoon in the first of a three game series despite the cold weather, according to announcement made today by Manager Connie Mack.

LIKE PUT-AND-TAKE!
London, March 20.—Five Chinese were arrested and fined for operating gambling resorts. They said the Chinese game of Pak-a-Pau was attracting many Londoners. The only thing they'd tell about the game is that sometimes odds of 400 to 1 are offered.

LEAVE IT TO BRIDGET
Woking, England, March 20.—Every night in years Bridget Thielan, housemaid, had looked under the bed for an intruder. Then she looked and saw one. She grasped him by the collar and made him give back her wrist watch which he'd purloined.

PREVENT FLU AND GRIPPE.
For a few cents you can ward off Flu and Grippe by promptly checking your coughs and colds with Foley's Honey and Tar. Also gives quick relief from coughs resulting from Flu, Grippe, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Bronchitis. Forty-eight years of satisfaction to users has made Foley's Honey and Tar the World's largest selling cough medicine. Contains no opiates—ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foleys.

BEULAH COAL now $4.75 per ton delivered. The Wachter Transfer Co. Phone 62.

Ingrown Toe Nail Turns Out Itself

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

Americans Star in Oxford Crew

Two American students at Oxford will be pillars of strength in the Oxford eight when the historic race with Cambridge takes place. Above is shown the Oxford boat on a trial spin at Henley. The two Americans are W. P. Mellen, stroking the crew, and R. K. Kane, No. 4. Inset shows, left to right, Kane and Mellen.

O. F. M'GRAY WINS PRIZE IN CONTEST

Garrison Dealer Takes State Honors for Selling Trucks

Everybody at the branch house of the International Harvester Company of America, 23 Main Street, Bismarck, N. D., headquarters in this territory for McCormick-Deering farm machines and implements has been keyed up to a high pitch the past few weeks on account of the $1000 Red Baby dealer state prize contest the company has been conducting.

"Hundreds of dealers in this district," said P. R. Fields, branch manager, "have been up and going the past year trying their best to win the prize for this state. It was a neck-and-neck race with a number of hustling dealers out in front."

"Mr. O. F. M'Gray of Garrison, N. D., proved to be the winner, and a real winner he is too," Mr. Fields went on to say. "Mr. M'Gray has the honor therefore, of being not only the proud recipient of the sizable prize of $1000 but also the leading McCormick-Deering dealer (so far as increased business percentage goes) in this important agricultural state."

Writes Letter
The main office of the harvester company at Chicago has also been making a great "show-do-you-do" about the Red Baby contest, and has asked Mr. M'Gray to write a special letter telling how it feels to be a winner. This letter is to be used in the special championship issue of the company's magazine, The Harvester World. The letter is full of the inspiration and business optimism that naturally radiates from a business leader. It has the spirit that spells success. Mr. Fields very kindly supplied us with an advance proof from the Harvester World which contains Mr. M'Gray's letter. It is as follows:

"It is indeed, with pleasure that I acknowledge receipt of your recent letter enclosing the $1000 Championship Contest check. Please accept my thanks."

"My receiving the check, while it was more or less of a surprise, is the result of a definite and determined sales program, including consistent and continuous country canvassing. My Red Baby was my method of 'carrying the message to Garcia.' I believed that the prospects in my territory, and that they were ready and willing to buy if a way could be devised to call on them."

"The Harvester company, through its efficient management, solved the problem by making it possible for each and every one of its dealers to become the owner of a Red Baby, thereby increasing the dealers' sales possibilities a great many times."

"Increased volume is brought about only through hard work and while my name appears on the check, I want you to know that my son, Frank, and our right-hand man, Art Benshoof, are more responsible than I in making the nice increase. They were on the roads early and late with the Red Baby, visiting every possible prospect, as well as delivering machines, twine, and repairs. Sales are up, and it's the service you give that counts."

"The $1000 check looks good, is appreciated, and comes in handy, yet the returns to the business in the way of profits for the year 1922, which are the direct results of a Red Baby country campaign, are very satisfactory."

"When all of your dealers see the light, your Red Baby factory will be working night and day."

Selling Plan
The Red Baby or projected selling plan, as it has been happily phrased, was inaugurated by the Harvester company early in 1922. The main-spring of the Red Baby campaign, to be sure, is the Red Baby itself. The Red Baby is an International Model S 2000-lb. speed chassis with express body mounted on it all painted a flaming red. I.H.C. Sales and Service are printed on the truck in prominent letters to indicate its purpose. Along with the announcement of the Red Baby campaign itself the Harvester company told of thirty-one $1000 district prizes to be offered to dealers who operated Red Babies, one for the largest percentage of increase in business in each district.

"We want our dealers," said the prize announcement sent out a year ago by the Harvester company, "to make a great deal more money this year than they did last. We know it can be done—if the effort is put forth. An extra hour in the country; another trip to the customer who falls to buy on the first round; a cheerful 'show-do' to every farmer friend and a straightforward bid for his business; an aggressive 'show them' sales policy in the store and on the farm—in these efforts will every McCormick-Deering dealer find his salvation."

On Road Wagon
Thousands of McCormick-Deering

FLORIDA'S RACQUET CHAMPION

Miss Anna Holland, seen here in action at Daytona Beach, Fla., is the racquet champion of that state and she hereby challenges the whole world.

dealers got on the band wagon, so to speak, and became owners of Red Babies. With the new speed vehicle, they realized they could give the farmer a new kind of at-the-farm service. They knew, also, that more business could be had if they went after it. Hence, with a new type of selling plan and a new type of vehicle to take them direct to the farmer's place of business, they went after business in a new spirit. With the $1000 prizes and the honor of being leaders in their respective territories as further incentives, lively competitions among the dealers developed in every district. Every man of them keyed himself up to the new Red Baby method of intensive selling effort.

It was a merry scrap and every prize winner knows that he had to go the limit to win the award. The campaign has been a marked success, so much so that a new and similar campaign is planned for the 1923 season.

Now, what has it meant to McCormick-Deering dealers to conduct their business in the new Red Baby way? How has it affected their relations with the farmer?

How to Boost Business
The Red Baby to dealers everywhere has been a symbol of rejuvenated selling effort. It has been an important means by which they have been able to meet the new, more cautious, and in many ways the healthier buying spirit with determination and confidence. The Red Baby has repeatedly proved that even in times of adversity the farmer will buy if he is thoroughly convinced that the purchase is necessary.

The farm after all is not a mere place of a factory and as a factory head the careful farmer will keep a close eye on production figures. Anything that will increase these figures will naturally have a special appeal. With the Red Baby the dealers have been able to make frequent trips to the country and right at his own place of business they have often convinced the farmer of the need of new equipment. Everywhere in the country within a radius of thirty or even forty miles speeds this flaming business getter. Farmers everywhere in a dealer's territory recognize the Red Baby as a distinctive farmers' service installation—a traveling advertisement.

The Red Baby, in truth, has helped thousands of McCormick-Deering dealers to be better business men and better salesmen. The Red Baby has brought them closer to the farmer. It has enabled them to go out to the farm often and to help and educate the farmer in regard to the machines they sell him—be in the truest sense the farmer's consulting engineers.

WILL OPERATE ON U. S. SENATOR

Rochester, Minn., Mar. 20.—Suffering from a stomach ailment, U. S. Senator Samuel Nicholson of Colorado, probably will undergo an operation today at the Mayo clinic.

Announcement

I desire to announce my candidacy for the office of Police Magistrate, subject to the will of the voters in the election on April 3. My motto is "A Square Deal to All." Will appreciate your support.
W. S. Casselman.

For First Class Dry Cleaning. Call Capital Laundry Co. Phone 684.

BEULAH COAL now $4.75 per ton delivered. The Wachter Transfer Co. Phone 62.

DIZZY SPELLS?

If You Have Heat Flashes or Smothering Spells, You Should Not Overlook One Word of This

Winona, Minn.—"At middle life I was terribly distressed with heat flashes and smothering spells. I would become quite dizzy at times, too. I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and felt the benefit right away, so I kept on taking it until I was safely thru that critical period. It was really remarkable how quickly Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription relieved me of all my distress and I came thru middle life in excellent health. I praise this good medicine at every opportunity."—Mrs. Rose Buse, 415 High Forest St. Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice or send 10c for trial pkg. of tablets.

It Pays to Swim With the Current

This is about two spark plugs. At the moment they are lying on the sales manager's desk in the establishment of a large middle-western hardware jobber.

One spark plug bears a name known wherever automobiles are used, the other a name seldom heard.

Both, says the sales manager, are good plugs. On the score of quality they run neck and neck.

"But," he adds, "we are discontinuing this line"—and he holds up the plug of unfamiliar name. "Yes, and our discount on it is larger, too."

"What's wrong with it? Not a thing. It's a good plug—mighty good plug, but—no one knows about it. It isn't advertised—the other one is. The demand is for the advertised make. And we've learned it pays to swim with the current, not against it."

More and more jobbers in every line of business are learning every day that it pays to swim with the current of popular demand.

"Our job," said one jobber, "is to supply markets, not create them. Let the manufacturer make a market for his goods, and we will handle it."

Said another — "Our salesman carry a catalog with thousands of items in it. They haven't the time to push unadvertised goods. Their work is principally taking orders."

If you go among these wholesalers today to introduce a new product in competition with merchandise nationally advertised, unless the article is exceptional, you will be met everywhere by the injunction: "First go out and get a reputation for your goods through advertising."

The wholesaler knows by actual contact with dealers how they value speed of turn-over, goods which move with a minimum of effort, goods people know about and ask for.

Published by the Bismarck Tribune, in co-operation with The American Association of Advertising Agencies

Smoke

INVEST YOUR CIGAR MONEY in smoke-content. It takes just one Cinco to win you over. Then you'll find out why nearly a quarter of a billion are smoked annually. 2 for 15c, everywhere.

CINCO

POLICE THEORY IS MODEL WAS THIEF VICTIM

Believe She Was Chloroformed After Thief Had Stolen Jewels

OTHERS EXONERATED

New York, Mar. 20.—The police theory today is that it was a thief who, just as dawn was breaking last Thursday chloroformed Dorothy M. Keenan, the model, to make a get-away with the jewels and furs he stole from the apartment, where her body was found the following noon.

The thief, in the theory constructed by Police Inspector Coughlin, entered her apartment sometime after the disappearance of the mysterious Mr. John Marshall, the elderly bearer of gifts.

Mr. Marshall, it appeared today, went to the district attorney with the story of his relations with the woman because he sought to exonerate Alfred Gumaris, a friend of Miss Keenan. Although he did not know and never heard of Gumaris he said he saw in the papers that the finger of suspicion was being pointed at Gumaris. He told officials that he himself was with Miss Keenan during the time it was suspected Gumaris was in her company.

Eugene Oppell, whose marriage to Miss Keenan was annulled, appeared voluntarily yesterday to explain that he had no connection with the murder and was not detained.

FRANCE WILL SHIP COKE

Minister Declares 3,000 Tons a Day Coming Soon

Paris, Mar. 20.—France expects to ship out of the Ruhr from 2,500 to 3,000 tons of coke daily for France, Belgium and Italy, the cabinet was informed today by Minister of Public Works L. Trocener, who has just returned from a trip to the occupied region. The minister said it was hoped to increase these shipments each week by at least 1,000 tons daily and thus rapidly reach the German reparations program abandoned when the Ruhr was occupied.

SPRING WEAR FOR MEN
New Spring styles in Suits, Overcoats, Shoes, at R. C. Rosen's Bankrupt Sale, now going on at less than wholesale prices.

NON-STOP RUN RECORD MADE BY DAKOTAN

This is the story of a non-stop economy run by a Chevrolet from Minot, N. D., to Los Angeles, California. It was staged by the Frosacker-White Motor Co. of Minot, and the car was driven by Irving (Speed) Wallace, a professional race driver, who had a relief driver with him. The car was known as No. 13.

The route traveled was from Minot, N. D., through Glendive and Livingston, Montana, to Wallace, Idaho, and thence to the coast and down to the Southern California city. Total distance traveled was 3,100 miles, and this was covered in 122 hours without stopping. During this grind of five days and two hours, Wallace claims he slept only two hours.

All the roads were rough and hilly but there were no punctures. And "Speed" says this trip proves to him that the Chevrolet is the best hill climber of any car he has ever driven.

The tough mountain trip of over three thousand miles was made in only two hours more than five days over 600 miles a day. The average rate of travel was 25.4 miles per hour, which means that terrific, death-defying speeds had to be made wherever possible.

In spite of all these unusual conditions, in spite of speed and mountains and rough roads, in spite of the fact that the motor was not stopped for over five days, this Chevrolet consumed only 120 gallons of gasoline and two quarts of oil. That means 25.8 miles per gallon of gasoline and 1.550 miles per quart of oil.

BARGAINS FOR MEN

R. C. Rosen's Bankrupt Stock of Men's and Boys' clothing, now on sale.

Dry Cleaning, Pressing, Dyeing, Repairing. Call 58. Eagle Tailoring.

CASCARETS 10¢
For Constipated Bowels—Bilious Liver

The nicest cathartic-laxative to physically your bowels when you have Headache, Biliousness, Cold, Indigestion, Disordered Stomach, or constipation. Cascarets never stir you up, or gripe like Salts, Pills, Calomel, or Oil and they cost only ten cents a box. Children love Cascarets too.

Count The Chevrolets

"WHO'S HIS FATHER?" ALL ENGLAND QUESTIONS

All England has taken an interest in the divorce suit brought by Hon. John Russell, son and heir of Lord Amphil, in which sensational testimony has questioned the paternity of his wife's child (above), Gregory Russell. Upper right is Mrs. Christabel Russell, the defendant. Below are shown the two men who figure prominently in the case. Left, a co-respondent, Edward J. Mayer, and (right) Hon. John Russell, the plaintiff husband.

WOMAN, SAID 126, DIES IN CALIF.

Long, Calif., Mar. 20.—Susi Canner, an Indian woman reported to be 126 years of age, died in Jackson county today, according to word received here today. Indian leaders said the woman had often told them of witnessing the first coming of Mexicans to California.

GOVERNMENT SAVINGS BOOK TELLS OF SYSTEM

A very attractive booklet issued by the U. S. Savings System tells what the government is doing to encourage the people to practice economy and thrift. About twelve years ago the Postal Savings System was established, chiefly for the benefit of the foreign-born who would trust their earnings only with the government for safe keeping. During the war the national savings movement grew in importance when war savings stamps and certificates were sold to persons of small means who wanted a safe investment, and who patriotically wished to meet the requests of the government for money to carry on the war. But these securities were not adapted to after-war conditions, and a new method to carry on the savings movement was devised. The government savings system was reorganized and treasury savings certificates were issued to take the place of war savings securities. New life was injected into the system and it is now working upon broad lines. It is conducting a campaign of education to teach the people to save; to have them avoid the swindling operations which take hundreds of millions of hard earned money from them; and it is offering for sale a sound, safe and convenient form of investment in denominations within the reach of all, and which are fully explained in the booklet.

SPRING WEAR FOR MEN
New Spring styles in Suits, Overcoats, Shoes, at R. C. Rosen's Bankrupt Sale, now going on at less than wholesale prices.

CAR REPAIRMAN IS CRUSHED

Fargo, Mar. 20.—Harold J. Haugland, 1541 Third av. N., Fargo, car repairman of the Northern Pacific railway, was killed in front of the Fargo passenger depot yesterday, when his head was crushed between a Pullman car and a day coach.

Mr. Haugland was working over the tall coupling of the day coach. The Pullman car stood about 12 feet away. When a switch engine bumped it to make a coupling it traveled the distance to the day coach and caught Mr. Haugland's head between the platforms of the two cars.

pleately by morning and you will feel splendid. They work while you sleep. Cascarets never stir you up, or gripe like Salts, Pills, Calomel, or Oil and they cost only ten cents a box. Children love Cascarets too.

Count The Chevrolets

Count The Chevrolets

UNIVERSITY LEADER DIES

J. J. Pettijohn Formerly at N. D. University

Minneapolis, Mar. 20.—John J. Pettijohn, assistant to the president of the University of Minnesota and director of the summer sessions, died at Rochester early today following a two months illness, it was announced here.

Mr. Pettijohn was director of the extension division of the University of North Dakota in 1913 and 1914 and the director of the extension division of the University of Indiana from 1914 to 1920. He is survived by his widow of Waterford, Wis., and six children.

POSTMASTER IS ACTIVE AT 81

Wahpeton, N. D., Mar. 20.—The oldest postmaster in the United States is W. H. Wilson of Pleasant Lake, N. D., his friends believe. Mr. Wilson is 81 years old, a Civil war veteran. He has been seriously ill of pneumonia for the last three weeks, but his daughter, Mrs.

INDIGESTION!!! UPSET STOMACH GAS, GAS, GAS

Chew a few Pleasant Tablets, Instant Stomach Relief

Instant relief from sourness, gases or acidity of stomach; form indigestion, flatulence, palpitation, headache or any stomach distress. The moment you chew a few "Pape's Diapepsin" tablets your stomach feels fine. Correct your indigestion for a few cents. Pleasant! Harmless! Any drug store.—Adv.

TUBERCULOSIS
Dr. Glass has positive proof that he is able to cure tuberculosis by inhalation, in any climate. Dr. Glass is the originator of this treatment, having discovered it in the year 1888. For further information address THE T. A. GLASS INHALANT CO., Mason Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif.

TYPEWRITERS
All makes sold and repaired. Bismarck, N. D.

R. S. ENGE, D. C. Ph. C.
Chiropractor
Consultation Free
Suite 9, 11 — Lucas Block
Phone 240

FASCISTI IN U. S. DECLARES N. Y. NEWSPAPER

Reported to Have 20,000 Members on North American Continent

New York, Mar. 20.—A branch of the Fascisti of Italy called the Fascisti of North America was founded in this country two years ago and now has 20,000 members in branches in many of the leading cities of the United States and Canada, the New York Herald says today.

Temporarily the organization in this hemisphere is said to be under the direction of U. Medici, who acts as "political secretary."

Officers of the New York headquarters of the organization are to be elected at a meeting here Saturday night, sequel to one held last Saturday night at which headquarters was dedicated, the paper says.

QUIT TOBACCO

So Easy to Drop Cigarette, Cigar, or Chewing Habit

No-To-Bac has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a smoke or chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead. All desire stops shortly the habit is completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question. Adv.

Van Ess your hair
This marvelous new way massaging stops falling hair and is guaranteed to grow new hair. We sign the guarantee. You get hair, or money back. Notice the flexible rubber massage cap on each bottle. You rub the bottle over your head and the hollow nipples feed hair-growing medicine into the scalp without wetting your hair. One minute a day in your own home will secure you an abundance of new hair, and the gloss and lustre that come with perfect health. Buy Van Ess today and Van Ess your hair tonight.

Finney's Drug Store Bismarck, N. D.

interest on savings

To the Ladies

How many times have you heard about real bargains—things that you needed—and you didn't have the money to spare for them?

If you should start a Savings Account at the City National Bank, an account absolutely your own, and add something to it each week, you would soon have ready cash to use when you needed it.

Doesn't the idea appeal to you? Why not start such an account right now?

The CITY NATIONAL BANK
BISMARCK, NO. DAKOTA

Don't Delay Filling Your Coal Bin

Don't wait until it's too late to have your bin filled with your spring supply of fuel. Soon the lawns will be soft and muddy and it will be impossible to drive on them in delivering your coal.

Use the Famous Wilton Lignite Coal and Bank the Difference

Because
It is from one of the oldest, largest and best equipped mines in the state.
It is freshly mined coal.
It is thoroughly prepared over modern screens.
It is free from all Slack, Slate and water.
It does not Clunker and contains less Sulphur and Ash than any other Lignite mined in the state.

Washburn Lignite Coal Co.

Phone 453

Good Clothes

are a good introduction

Be sure your clothes are good; they are if they have our name in them.

Spring Suits

$25 $35 $45

New colorings. New Models.

CUSTOM TAILORING

Suits and Overcoats, tailored by hand, to your individual measurements $50 to $85

Perfect satisfaction absolutely guaranteed or money back.

S. E. Bergeson & Son

Tailoring. Dry cleaning.

Who is Swift & Company -

Perhaps you may think of Swift & Company as a one family affair. Many do.

It really consists of about 100,000 people, working together with a common aim.

45,000 of these own shares in the business. Over 50,000 of them are workers in Swift & Company. 16,000 of the workers are shareholders.

Pages 19, 20 and 21 of our 1923 year book, just published, bring out who and what Swift & Company is, in a way that helps you to understand all industry—how it operates, why it has to operate in just that way.

And it tells of the organization that has made Swift's Premium Ham and Bacon, Brookfield Butter and Eggs, and Brookfield Sausage, —household words for excellence.

Send for a copy—FREE

Swift & Company 1923 Year Book
Address: Swift & Company, Public Relations Dept.
U. S. Yards, Chicago

Swift & Company, U. S. A.
A nation-wide organization owned by more than 45,000 shareholders

Deliver, Call or Write to SAM SLOVEN

where you can get highest prices for scrap iron, paper, magazines, rags, and all kinds of junk

Corner 11th Street. Across from Standard Oil Station.

TRIBUNE WANT ADS BRING RESULTS